—Canadian flour was firm, while the sales embraced 1,200 bbls. within the range of the above prices. Southern flour was in fair demand and prices steady, with sales of 1,000 bbls. at quotations. Rye flour was steady at our figures, with sales reported of 400 bbls. Corn meal was steady and in good request at the above prices, with sales of 200 bbls. Jersey and Brandywine. Wheat was firm and in fair demand, with sales of 86,000 bushels at $1 11 a $1 13 for Canada club, $1 01 a $1 10½ for Chicago spring, $1 10 a $1 12 for Milwaukee club, $1 13 a $1 15 for amber Iowa and Wisconsin, $1 13 a $1 18 for inferior to good red and white Western, and $1 21 for fair white do., and $1 30 for good white Michigan, and $1 40 for a small lot choice white Kentucky. Corn was firm and in fair request, with sales of 50,000 bushels at 45c. a 46c. for heated, and at 49c. a 52½c. for new and inferior old, and at 54c. a 55c. for sound old mixed, in store and delivered, and at 57c. for yellow, in store. Rye was cheaper and more active at the concession, with sales of 15,000 bushels of Western at 69c. a 70c., with some small lots of State at 76c. Barley and barley malt were steady and prices unchanged. Oats were in fair demand, with sales of Canadian and Western at 43c. a 44c., and State at 45c.

COFFEE was steady, while sales were limited.

COTTON.—The sales embraced about 300 bales, closing on the basis of 38¼c. a 39c. for middling uplands—holders not being disposed to offer lots, especially of finer grades, at the present current prices.

FREIGHTS were rather firmer, especially for grain. To Liverpool, about 75,000 bushels of wheat were engaged, in bulk and ships' bags, at 11d. a 11½d.; 18,000 bushels of corn at 11d. per 60 pounds, in bulk, and about 10,000 bbls. of flour were reported at 3s. To London, 3,500 bbls. flour at 3s. 6d., 50 hhds. tobacco at 40s., and 100 tons oil cake at 32s. 6d. To Glasgow, 800 bbls flour at 3s. 6d.; and some wheat was reported at 11d. a 11½d., in bulk and ships' bags. Rates to Havre were unchanged.

FISH.—Dry cod were firmer, with a fair business doing at $4 a $4 12½ for St. George's bank. Mackerel were selling to a fair extent and closed firm at $5 50 a $5 75 for large No. 3. Herring were scarce and higher. Scaled were saleable at 24c. a 25c. and No. 1 at 18c. a 20c.

FRUIT.—There was more doing in currants and at firmer prices, with sales at 9c. a 9½c. Raisins were unchanged.

HAY was steady at 60c. for shipping and at 65c. a 70c. for city use.

HOPS were steady, at 15c. a 20c., with a fair brewing demand, and at 7c. a 10c. for the growth of 1860.

MOLASSES.—The market was steady but quiet.

PROVISIONS.—Pork—The market was more buoyant, with rather more doing, with sales of about 900 bbls. mess at $10 87½, cash, and $11, regular way, and prime at $8 75 a $8 87½. Beef was dull, and in the absence of sales of moment quotations were nominal. About 60 bbls. prime mess at private terms. Cut meats were steady and in fair demand, with sales of 250 packages at 3¾c. a 4c. for shoulders and at 4½c. a 5¼c. for hams. Lard was very firm and in good request, with sales of 1,100 packages at 7¼c. a 8¼c. Butter and cheese were unchanged.

RICE was firm, while sales were limited. Messrs. Eugene O'Sullivan & Co., in their circular of yesterday, give the following account of stock in this market:—On July 1, 1861, 5,311 casks Carolina and 1,255 bags East India, and in 1862, 580 casks Carolina, 200 casks Paris, 22,942 bags cleaned East India and 25,260 bags and mats uncleaned do.

SUGARS.—The market was firm, with sales of 1,500 hhds., chiefly Cuba, were made at 7c. at 8½c. for fair refining to prime grocery grades, with some lots of Porto Rico at 7¾c. a 8c., and of New Orleans handsome at 9¼c. and 207 boxes, part at 7½c.

TALLOW was active and higher, with a good shipping demand, with sales, within two or three days past, of 200,000 lbs. prime city at 9¼c. a 9½c., and 40,000 lbs. Butchers' Association at 9¾c., and 40,000 lbs. Western at 9c. a 9¼c.

TEA was steady and in fair demand, with moderate sales at steady prices.

TIN has recently advanced materially, which has tended to check sales.

WHISKEY.—Sales embraced 500 bbls., at 27½c. a 28c. for State and 28½c. for Western.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CORCORAN ZOUAVES.
THIRD REGIMENT EMPIRE BRIGADE.
F. B. SPINOLA, BRIGADIER GENERAL,
MARIOTT N. CROFT, COLONEL.

Wanted, immediately, twenty-five men, to fill this company. Officers and men are to have a splendid and dashing uniform, and men of experience at their head. It will be to the advantage of those enlisting to join Company C, Captain Michael Murphy, who belonged to the old Ninth regiment, the first that ever wore a green uniform as a regiment in the city of New York. Enlist with a man you can know something about. Inquire of the forty-eight men who the captain is. Inquire of the wounded men of the Thirty seventh regiment, now in this city, how he treated the men of his company when captain of Company G in said regiment. See the account of said men serenading him on Friday evening the 20th ult. Relief given to the families of the members of this company; pay from date of enlistment, $13, paid to each man when mustered into the United States service. $100 paid to every soldier when honorably discharged. It will be to the advantage of those wishing promotion, which will only be given to them who will take a pride and pleasure to become good drill sergeants. Recruiting depots 550 Second avenue, corner of Thirty-fourth street, and 483 Broadway, room No. 10, over headquarters of the regiment.

CORCORAN ZOUAVES.
THIRD REGIMENT—EMPIRE BRIGADE.

Colonel—Marriott N. Croft, Commanding.—Lieut. Col. P. M. McDermott; Brigadier General F. B. Spinola.

This company, commanded by officers of experience, is intended to be the crack company of the regiment. Now is the time for all good men desirous of serving their country to enlist.

Come one—come all, and let it not be said by foreign Powers that American citizens are afraid to battle for their glorious Union and constitution, with the beautiful banner of the free waving over their heads. Remember, and let your battle cry be, the Union and the constitution. $60 will be given for 25 able bodied men. Apply to Captain Charles Dunlevy, 42 Prince street, or to First Lieutenant William B. Fersee, 38 Park street, and Lieut. Wm. Butcher, 171 Joralemon street, Brooklyn, in rear of City Hall.

FIFTH EAGLE BRIGADE.
HEADQUARTERS, VOSBURGH CHASSEURS,
FIFTY-THIRD REGIMENT, N. Y. V.

A Drum Major, thoroughly qualified, may hear of a permanent situation in the above regiment, by applying, without delay, to Colonel Buckingham, or to Lieutenant Colonel Denike, at the Red House, 105th street, corner of Second avenue, Harlem. He will be required to instruct the field music. Extra pay will be allowed, proportioned to the skill of the party accepted.

HEADQUARTERS TWENTY-SECOND REGIMENT New York State Militia, Camp Aspinwall, Bolivar Heights, Virginia, 25th June, 1862.—General Orders No. 9.—In obedience to orders from the War Department, all officers and men of this Regiment now absent on furlough, are ordered to report for duty, at their headquarters immediately, or be considered and treated as deserters.

By order of Lieut. Col. ASPINWALL,
J. HENDERSON GRANT, Adjutant.

"PALE CHEEKS IN DIXIE WHEN RATTLE SHELL AND BOMB."
ANTHON BATTALION OF LIGHT ARTILLERY.
MAJOR F. W. WILLARD.

Every day's experience teaches that battles are becoming more and more artillery duels. Let us, then, have more batteries.

The ANTHON BATTALION is the only artillery corps forming in this State by special recommendation of the President, and affords probably the last opportunity for those desirous of serving their country in the finest arm of the service.

The battalion will consist of two batteries of eight guns each. Four hundred intelligent men, of good physique, are wanted to man them. Pay and rations in accordance with the United States regulations for this branch of the service.

A few well drilled cannoneers can secure appointments as non-commissioned officers upon application at headquarters, 598 Broadway.

PHŒNIX REGIMENT,
CORCORAN ZOUAVES,
COMPANY A,

will receive a few more intelligent men to fill the company to the regular maximum
