THE REBELLION.

ATTENTION, GERMAN PATRIOTS!
About face. New York to the rescue.
The New York Volunteer Artillery, Fifth regiment, now stationed in Fort Marshall, at Baltimore, Md., requiring a few more men to fill its companies to their full maximum standard—to wit: 150 men to the company—an office has been opened at No. 40 New Bowery for the enlistment of men for Company B. This company is second to none in the regiment. It is comfortably quartered in Fort Marshall, and its members encounter no long marches, carrying heavy knapsacks, are not exposed to out of door encampments, &c., incident to field duty. Recruits forwarded to the regiment daily. Pay equal to any in the service, commencing from date of enrollment. One hundred dollars bounty, and relief tickets issued to families of all recruits. Clothing and rations furnished immediately. Apply immediately at 40 New Bowery, between James and Roosevelt streets.
Lieutenant C. S. AYER, } Recruiting
Lieutenant ORVILLE HARRIS, } officers.

ATTENTION! PHOENIX MEN.
RALLY ROUND THE GREEN FLAG.
Recruits wanted for Company I, Phœnix regiment, Corcoran Zouaves, Fourth regiment Empire Brigade, Brigadier General Spinola commanding. This magnificent Irish regiment, now quartered in Camp Edwards Cherrepont, East New York. A few men wanted to fill up this favorite company. Quarters, subsistence, and a new and dashing uniform furnished at once. Pay from $13 to $23 per month, to commence from date of enlistment, under the late act of Congress. $13, a month's pay in advance, and $2 hand money, together with $25 bounty, will be given when mustered into service; also private relief tickets for the families of volunteers, signed by the Colonel of the regiment.
Irishmen! your adopted country calls upon you in her hour of need. Has such a call ever been in vain? Answer, exiles of a kind-red despotism, so that you are now called upon to crush. This is the only Irish regiment now raising for the war. It is commanded by a true son of the old land, Colonel James C. Burke, a man who has seen service in our grand Union army; and the officers associated with him have been instructed by Colonel Michael Corcoran for his other cause. It is your duty to aid in bringing our gallant chief back to his own again, 'neath the banner of the Union. Irishmen! this should be a grand rally point, as the regiment will be exclusively Irish, from the Colonel to the drummer boy. JOHN COLLINS, Recruiting officer, 299 Bowery.

ANY MILITARY GENTLEMAN DESIROUS OF BEING nominated Colonel of the Seventh Senatorial District Regiment, or of raising a company therein as Captain, may address or call upon Messrs. Wm. A. Darling, Nelson J. Waterbury and General Hall, or either of them. By order,
RICHARD B. CONNOLLY, Chairman.
A. OAKEY HALL, Secretary.

A GENTLEMAN GOING SOUTH IS DESIROUS OF making an arrangement with provision merchants or any others engaged in army supplies, by which handsome pay in and quick returns may be realized. Address South, box 110 Herald office.

COLONEL PEISSUER'S REGIMENT.
The Colonel intends to make this a regiment the first ready for service, and one of the best in every respect. Such officers only will be received who are acquainted with their duties, and whose character is known.
The country needs honest, brave men; it needs them now. The country is in a critical condition, and needs every soldier. Come forward then at once, men of all classes and professions. Men of New York, come forward. All the assistance and bounties granted by the United States government, and by the State, county and city authorities, will be fully secured to men and officers.
Regimental Camp, Turtle Bay Park, Forty-fifth street and Second avenue. Regimental Headquarters, No. 575 Broadway, opposite the Metropolitan Hotel.
ELIAS PEISSUER, Colonel Commanding.

CORCORAN ZOUAVES, THIRD REGIMENT EMPIRE brigade, Col. Marriott N. Croft, commanding. F. B. Spinola, Brigadier General. This company, commanded by officers of experience, is intended to be the crack company of the regiment. Now is a chance for all good men desirous of serving their country to enrol their names. "Come one, come all!" and let it not be said by foreign powers that American citizens are afraid to battle for their glorious Union and constitution with the starry banner of the free waving over their heads. Apply to Capt. CHARLES DUMLEVY, No. 46 Centre street, or to First Lieutenant Wm. B. Persse, No. 36 Park street, N. Y., or to Second Lieutenant Wm. Butchee, 170 Joralemon street, Brooklyn.
Pay from $13 to $21 per month. $38 bounty when the regiment is mustered into the United States service.
Subsistence, clothing and good quarters furnished from date of enlistment.

CORCORAN ZOUAVES, FOURTH REGIMENT EMpire brigade, Col. Burke commanding.—Recruits wanted for Company B, commanded by Captain Wm. A. Treadwell and First Lieutenant P. R. Hughes. For further information apply at the recruiting office, 17 Broadway.

PHŒNIX REGIMENT.
CORCORAN ZOUAVES.
FOURTH REGIMENT EMPIRE BRIGADE.
JAMES C. BURKE, Colonel.
Irishmen, now is your time, fall in and fill up the ranks of this exclusively splendid Irish regiment, being the only one now authorized to be raised, and the only real live Irish regiment recruiting in the country, accepted by his Excellency Governor Morgan. There can be no consolidation. The name Phœnix regiment, Corcoran Zouaves, should be a guarantee to Irishmen that this is to be a grand rallying point. Recruits wanted for Company G. Come early, as the ranks are filling fast. Subsistence, quarters and transportation to camp at East New York. An entirely new and dashing uniform, and relief for families of volunteers, tickets signed by the Colonel of the regiment, $13, a month's pay in advance, with $2 hand money; $25 bounty when the regiment is sworn in. Promotions from the ranks exclusively. Apply at the headquarters of the company, No. 7 Bowery, corner of Division street, to Captain MICHAEL O'ROURKE, or Lieutenant JOHN McCARTHY.

PHŒNIX REGIMENT, CORCORAN ZOUAVES.
FOURTH REGIMENT EMPIRE BRIGADE.
Recruits wanted for Company D, Omahony Guards, Phœnix regiment, Corcoran Zouaves.
This magnificent Irish regiment, organized by Colonel Michael Corcoran, whose name it bears, previous to his departure for the seat of war, it is intended to make it the best representative of Irish characters and patriotism that ever left our city. Colonel James C. Burke, commanding, needs no eulogy here. His services, since the commencement of the rebellion, in the grand army of the Union, bears the highest recommendations for bravery and merit from his superior officers.
Irishmen, rally around the green flag, and, marching side by side with the Stars and Stripes, aid us to bring our brave and imprisoned chief back to his own. As this is exclusively an Irish organization—the only one recognized as such by State and United states authorities—no such opportunity of serving beath the green flag will ever again be proffered you. Company D, Captain Timothy Burke, presents many inducements to his gallant young countrymen not offered elsewhere. One of the oldest Phœnix officers in this city, and a gallant '48 man to boot, has particular claims on his fellow countrymen. Quarters, subsistence and transportation to camp at East New York, combined with the handsomest uniform ever got up in this city. Pay from $13 to $23 per month. One month's pay ($13) in advance, together with $2 hand money when mustered in; $25 bounty advanced also when the regiment is mustered in. Relief tickets, signed by the Colonel of the regiment, given to the families of volunteers; and say, what more can we offer you, fellow countrymen, to stir your patriotism up?
Recruits received daily at the headquarters, 15 Oak street. TIMOTHY J. BURKE.

FOURTH REGIMENT EMPIRE BRIGADE.
JAMES C. BURKE, COLONEL.
Company H of the magnificent Irish regiment wants "the" able-bodied men to fill up to the maximum standard. Irishmen, your adopted country is now in danger, and your strong right hand is needed to uphold the constitution and enforce the laws. No call was ever made in vain upon Irishmen when liberty was in danger. Company H is officered by true sons of the Emerald Isle, and no expense will be spared to make this the crack company of the regiment. Quarters, subsistence and transportation to camp at East New York. A new and dashing uniform furnished. Pay from $13 to $23 per month. One month's pay in advance, with $2 hand money when mustered in. $25 bounty advanced on the mustering in of the regiment. Relief tickets signed by the Colonel of the regiment for the families of volunteers. Come at once, and apply to Lieutenant JAS. A. SULLIVAN, at headquarters, 534 Broadway.

PHŒNIX REGIMENT—CORCORAN ZOUAVES.
FOURTH REGIMENT EMPIRE BRIGADE.
JAMES C. BURKE, Colonel.—M. D. SMITH, Lieut. Colonel.
This being the only Irish Regiment of Volunteers recruiting in New York whose officers and men will be sons of the old maternal land, our gallant young countrymen had better fall in under the green flag, as we are anxious to win a place on the same bright page with Corcoran's, Meagher's and Mulligan's boys.
RECRUITS WANTED
for Company H, who will be immediately furnished with quarters, clothing and rations at East New York, get $13 bounty and one month's pay when mustered in. Tickets of relief for their families, and $75 bounty when discharged.

COLONEL JAMES C. BURKE.
Irishmen, your strong right hand is needed to-day before Richmond. The blood of thousands of your fellow countrymen cries to you for vengeance. The land of your adoption—your only home—one on each—stretches forth her shattered arms to you and implores you, as she has helped you and cherished you in your day of distress, that you will now step forward to her rescue in this her hour of need. Will you pay back part of the obligations you owe her? A happy home, free and respected, your religion tolerated and allow your people to worship, your religion tolerated throughout the land—all this has invested the Stars and Stripes in your regard to you. Come for you and yours, and will rise in the virtues of humanity and gratitude, perfection of human [illegible] as land, the freest government, the polluted, rent asunder, [illegible] happiness the world has ever seen, to be [illegible] and crushed by the worst despotism—[illegible] Remember this, [illegible] Henry Kirk ever endured. by our heredit[illegible] rebellion is fostered and nourished money lan[illegible] enemy, England; remember her ships and [illegible] keeps alive this unholy war, and now she [illegible] going to take a hand in. God grant she may. [illegible] opportunity so long sought for dawns at last. [illegible] upon you to-day for our homes and firesides [illegible] promptly responded to.
[illegible] Phœnix, the mother of brave Irishmen, calls upon her children of '48 to rally round her Green Banner, and, marching side by side with the Stars and Stripes, carry the music of the Union to the utmost boundaries of the land. See company advertisements for further particulars.

THIRD REGIMENT,
EMPIRE BRIGADE.
CORCORAN ZOUAVES.
RECRUITING HEADQUARTERS,
483 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.
HON. F. B. SPINOLA
having been empowered by the Secretary of War and Edwin D. Morgan, Governor of the State of New York, to raise a brigade of infantry, has appointed
MARIOTT N. CROFT
Colonel of this Third regiment. It is intended that this shall be the first regiment in the field under the last call of President Lincoln. The officers thus far connected with this organization are men who are well known—men who have seen service and had enough of it in the field, and it is the intention of Brig. Gen. F. B. Spinola to make this regiment one of the finest that have gone to the seat of war, and for that purpose no pains or expense will be spared. Colonel Marriott N. Croft is an officer of much ability, and bears recommendations from Generals Scott and McClellan. He has been well tried both in the Mexican war and the late rebellion, and is a hard working officer, and one who will make the regiment what it should be. The men will be well cared for and placed under the careful drill of experienced officers. Those officers
