FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY, August 16—6 P. M.

Money is offered everywhere at 4 per cent, and many brokers are supplied at 3. Exchange sold this morning at 126⅝, and was quoted at 126⅝ a 127 at the close. Gold opened at 114⅝, but 115 was given in the afternoon for a large lot, and the last price was 115¼. Demand notes were freely supplied at 107½ a ¼.

The stock market at the board to-day was variable. Some stocks declined under sales for the realization of profits, while others, under the influence of a slight demand, advanced. The tone of the market indicates an advance on the first intelligence of strong and successful military movements. Large sums are being daily invested in stocks, and each day the circle of believers in an inevitable and large advance in speculative securities appears to be widening. Bonds are advancing steadily, and in a very short time all the first class bonds will be out of the market. The elements which combine to render a period of unexampled speculation highly probable are the enormous abundance of money, the rapid accumulation of deposits in the banks, the low and declining rate of interest, the extraordinary traffic on the railroads, the increase in freights, in view of the business of the fall months, the growing strength of our military position under the vigorous policy of the administration, and the prospect that the final triumph of the Union cause and the suppression of the rebellion are a mere question of time. At the board to-day 7-30 notes sold at 104, an advance of ¼ per cent. Pacific Mail rose 1 per cent, New York Central ¼, Erie ¼, Erie preferred ½, Illinois Central ¼, Cleveland and Pittsburg ⅛, Galena ⅛, Rock Island ¼. After the session the market was very strong, and some business was done by the outside operators at higher rates. Erie preferred was in demand at 68, and other shares in proportion.

The City of Manchester took out to-day $268,000 in specie.
