Lieut. Colonel D. H. VINTON,
Deputy Quartermaster General, United States Army.

ARMY SUPPLIES.
OFFICE OF ARMY CLOTHING AND EQUIPAGE, 502 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, August 29, 1862.
Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 12 o'clock M. on Tuesday, the 2d September, for furnishing packing boxes, by contract, at the depot of Army Clothing and Equipage in this city.
Specifications of the boxes can be seen at this office.
A guarantee for the faithful performance of the contract must accompany each bid, and bidders will state how many boxes they propose to furnish and the shortest possible time in which they can make deliveries.
Proposals should be endorsed "Proposals for furnishing Packing Boxes," and addressed to
Lieut. Colonel D. H. VINTON,
Deputy Quartermaster General.

PROPOSALS FOR OATS.
QUARTERMASTER'S DEPOT, ALEXANDRIA, VA., August 23, 1862.
Sealed Proposals will be received at this office, until Tuesday, the 16th day of September, at 12 o'clock M., for furnishing the government with five hundred thousand bushels of OATS. The oats to be of a good merchantable quality, put up in bags of about two bushels each.
Oats will be received by weight, at (32) thirty-two pounds to the bushel.
Sacks to be furnished without extra charge to the government.
Delivery to be made in the city of Alexandria, Va., or such other point on the Potomac as the Depot Quartermaster may direct within (30) days from the date of the contract, or such longer period as may be agreed upon.
PROPOSALS.
The full name and Post office address of the bidder must appear in the proposal. Proposals will be for (100,000) one hundred thousand bushels, and if a bid is made in the name of a firm, the names of all the parties must appear, or the bid will be considered as the individual proposal of the partner signing it.
Proposals from disloyal parties will not be considered, and an oath of allegiance must accompany each proposition.
Proposals must be addressed to Capt. D. H. RUCKER, Quartermaster United States Army, Washington, D. C., and should be plainly marked "Proposals for Oats and Hay."
GUARANTEE.
The ability of the bidder to fill the contract, should it be awarded to him, must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, whose signatures must be appended to the guarantee.
The responsibility of the guarantors must be shown by the official certificate of the clerk of the nearest District Court, or of the United States District Attorney.
Bidders must be present in person when the bids are opened, or their proposals will not be considered.
Bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars, signed by the contractor and four of his guarantors, will be required of the successful bidder upon signing the contract.
As the bond must accompany the contract, it will be necessary for bidders to have their bondsmen with them, or to have bonds signed in anticipation and ready to be produced when the contract is signed. Blanks for bonds can be procured upon application being made at this office, either personally, by letter, or by telegraph.
FORM OF GUARANTEE.
We ——, of the county of —— and State of ——, and —— of the county of ——, and State of ——, do hereby guarantee that —— is able to fulfil a contract in accordance with the terms of his proposition, and that should his proposition be accepted, he will at once enter into a contract in accordance therewith.
Should the contract be awarded him, we are prepared to become his sureties.
(To this guarantee must be appended the official certificate above mentioned.)
INSPECTION, DELIVERY, &C.
All Oats contracted for under this advertisement will be rigidly inspected, and such as do not prove of a good, sound, merchantable quality will be rejected.
Payment to be made from time to time as the forage is delivered, or so soon thereafter as the Depot Quartermaster shall be in funds.
Any informality in the bid, or non-conformance with the terms of this advertisement, will insure the rejection of the proposal.
Delivery to be made at such wharf, at the city of Alexandria, as the Depot Quartermaster may direct.
The Depot Quartermaster reserves to himself the right to reject any or all bids that he may deem too high, or for other sufficient cause.
C. B. FERGUSON, Captain, A. Q. M., U. S. Army, and Depot Quartermaster.

Any informality in the bid, or non-conformance with the terms of this advertisement, will insure the rejection of the proposal.
Delivery to be made at the railroad depot or at one of the government wharves in the city of Washington.
The Depot Quartermaster reserves to himself the right to reject any or all bids that he may deem too high.
D. H. RUCKER, Colonel and Depot Quartermaster.

A DIALOGUE.
Q.—What fine regiment was that, headed by Whitworth's brass band, that paraded on the reception of Colonel Corcoran?
A.—Why, that was the Eleventh regiment (Stanton Legion), New York State Volunteers, commanded by Colonel Wm. H. Allen.
Q.—How can I become one of its members?
A.—By making personal application at the office of Captain J. W. Drummond, No. 536 Pearl street, where you will always find him in attendance, ready to enroll all able bodied men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged.
The Captain will obtain for you all the bounties from the government and State authorities, and provide relief tickets for all men having families to support and are desirous of joining his company.
The above dialogue took place on the arrival of General Corcoran, between two men, who enlisted the next morning in the company being enrolled by Capt. J. W. DRUMMOND, No. 536 Pearl street,
Regimental headquarters, 174 Grand street.
