A YOUNG LADY, HAVING AN INCOME OF HER own, wishes to find a family or party of friends who are about to travel in Europe, and whom she can join for company and protection. Address, with particulars, W. P., Union square Post office, for two days. Unexceptionable references given and required.

A CARD FROM THE WAITERS' PROTECTIVE AND Benevolent Association.

The waiters of the city of New York beg to inform the hotel proprietors and the public that, in consequence of the high rates of provisions and clothing of all description, and the low rate of wages they have received, they find it impossible to provide themselves and their families with the common necessaries of life. They are compelled to ask their employers to advance their wages to twenty dollars per month, which only rates about 66⅔ cents per day, which, when considered, is not an unjust demand, as they have carefully considered every item before asking for such advance. They also wish the hotel proprietors, the boarders and the public to understand that they are not led away by any excitement; nor do they wish to inconvenience their employers or their boarders, as they have given them a reasonable time to consider their just claim. Hoping that the employers, boarders and the public will appreciate the justness of our cause, we remain, your very humble servants, in behalf of the waiters of New York.

WM. McDERMOTT, Chairman.
JOHN BYRNE, Secretary.
MICHAEL KILLILEA, Treasurer.

M. By order of the Board.

COPPERHEADS, NOTICE THIS.—OUR 'BADGES.'—Some miserable imposters have not only stolen our advertisements, but have the audacity to proclaim themselves the original and sole manufacturers of the Badge of Liberty. We can and are ready to prove that we were not only the first in the field, but are the only authorized manufacturers, and that our badges are pure copper, not the spurious metal. We refer to the great Copperhead party of the Union and the thousands who already wear our badges. Mailed on receipt of 15 cents, or $10 per 100, by express. Don't fail to send your orders to the original manufacturers, A. C. BLONDIN & CO., box 4,753 N. Y. Post office.
