FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

THURSDAY, April 16—6 P. M.

The extreme inclemency of the weather has operated against business to-day, and the markets generally have been dull.

Gold opened at 153, fell to 152, rallied to 153¼, sold at 153⅛, 154 and 153⅝ in the afternoon, and closed at 153⅝ bid. There was a rather better inquiry for bills, at about 167 a ⅛ for bankers' signatures. But this rate is still 2⅛ a 3 per cent below the relative price of gold. The importers continue to complain of the dulness which prevails in business circles, and say that, as they are selling nothing, they cannot buy exchange.

Money continues excessively easy. On call the leading houses are abundantly supplied at five per cent, and large amounts continue to flow into the Sub-Treasury at five. Debt certificates are well maintained at the recent advance.

The stock market was dull but firm this morning. In governments there is absolutely no trade whatever. To effect sales it would be necessary to make a concession from last quotations. Bonds are inactive. In railway shares there was not much change. Erie was barely steady, notwithstanding the enormous earnings of March; Harlem was dull; guaranteed was very firm; Pittsburg was a fraction better, and Northwestern advanced 2½ per cent on the proposed extension of the line. Pacific was firmer than at the close yesterday. One hundred shares sold at 186, seller thirty. Yesterday the bears were willing to sell at 183, seller thirty. In other descriptions there was no change at the first board. The amount of business done was small. At the public board, at one P. M., the market was a fraction better; guaranteed was ¼ higher, and Erie ⅛. In the afternoon the market was rather better, and, though there was not much animation, prices were firm. Erie rose ⅛ per cent, Cumberland 1, Pittsburg ¼. Guaranteed fell off ¼ per cent. At the four P. M. call the market was steady, without animation. The following were the closing quotations of the day:—

Considerable curiosity is felt on the subject of the Central earnings for March. The Erie shows an increase of nearly 50 per cent, and the Fort Wayne an increase of 56 per cent. It is doubted whether the Central is doing quite as well, though it must be taking a great deal of money. The prospects of the Fort Wayne road are very bright indeed. Since the consolidation with the Pittsburg line a number of expenditures for agencies, &c., have been reduced, and at the same time freights and fares between points which used to be competing points have been advanced. The combined road will make its own terms with the lake propellers this summer, instead of being dictated to by them. It is believed that the Fort Wayne will earn this year fully 20 per cent on its stock. A large portion of the surplus earnings will, however, be spent on the road, in pursuance of the sound conservative policy which now governs the management.

The advices from Albany this afternoon were to the effect that the House would agree to no Gold bill which does not permit the banks and insurance companies to lend par on gold. Congress, which is the especial guardian of the national currency, deemed it sufficient to prohibit loans of over par, and it is surely unreasonable to expect our Legislature to outdo Congress in the matter.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the day, the receipts at the Sub-Treasury were again very heavy. The business in the office was as follows:—

Receipts	$1,962,103 43
For customs	213,000 00
Payments	1,848,960 51
Balance	8,527,151 95

The New York and New Haven Railroad Company have declared a semi-annual dividend of three dollars per share, free from government tax, payable on the 1st of May.
