AMUSEMENTS.

WINTER GARDEN.
MOST POSITIVELY THE
LAST WEEK
of the distinguished actress,
Miss LUCILLE WESTERN,
who will on
THIS (MONDAY) EVENING, APRIL 20, at the earnest solicitation of many influential citizens, and in compliance with many requests forwarded to the managerial bureau, appear in Madame Celeste's chef d'œuvre, the grand MILITARY SPECTACLE,

FRENCH SPY.
The version now offered to the public differs materially from any printed copy or garbled manuscript of the play now extant. Miss Western possesses Madame Celeste's ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT, together with all the original music, which will be presented full, entire and without mutilation, thus affording that class of our citizens who cherish a VIVID REMEMBRANCE of Madame Celeste a admirable impersonation of the principal role, an opportunity of comparing the efforts of Miss Western with that of the EMINENT ESS OF PANTOMIMIC ART;
also of establishing the justice of the criticism which asserts that "Miss Western, in this role, stands confessedly without a rival in either ENGLAND OR AMERICA."
