NEW YORK, MAY 11, 1863.—AT A MEETING OF THE lady managers of the Fair lately held for the Church of the Immaculate Conception, it was unanimously resolved, That they could not, at the successful termination of the Fair, without a breach of gratitude, overlook the valuable services kindly vouchsafed to them by the gentlemen of the Cecelian Band. We feel indebted to them for making each evening so pleasant with their enlivening music, and willingly share our success with them. For such untiring real our thanks would indeed be but feeble recompense. The motive that prompted such generosity looked for a higher reward. That such may be given them is the prayer of the ladies of the Church of the Immaculate Conception.
