BY BROADWAY
New York, May 26, 1863.
The undersigned has been duly authorized by Brigadier General Andrew Johnson, Military Governor of Tennessee, under authority of the War Department, to raise a regiment of cavalry in the State for special service in Eastern Tennessee. Governor Johnson's first object is to rescue his family, who are in great danger from the rebels. It is believed that the requisite men can be readily recruited in this State, and especially among those who have relatives in Tennessee. They will be more valuable in Tennessee, and the field for service is much more important and inviting. All interested will be furnished with desired information on application at the office, 607 Broadway. A list of officers and relations in different parts of the State will be published.
ERNEST M. BEMENT, Commandant.
