SALES AT AUCTION.

ADRIAN H. MULLER, AUCTIONEER.
ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY VALUABLE BUILDING LOTS IN NORTH NEW YORK, AT AUCTION.

ADRIAN H. MULLER, F. R. WILKINS & CO. will sell at auction, on Wednesday, June 10, and Thursday, June 11, at 12 o'clock, at the Merchants' Exchange salesroom, 103 Liberty street, New York.

One hundred and eighty valuable Lots in North New York.

North New York is situated about 1,500 feet north of the Harlem river, at the upper terminus of the Third avenue, New York; the streets and avenues correspond with those of New York proper; it is conveniently reached by steamboat from Peck slip almost hourly during the day; by the Harlem Railroad seven times a day; also by the cars of the Second and Third avenue Railroads every five minutes during the day and evening, and at all hours of the night, thus giving residents of the place the same opportunity for attending lectures, places of amusement, &c., in the city as are possessed by those living in the upper wards of the city. A railroad is to be constructed on the main street, known as Third avenue, and which is a continuation of Third avenue, New York proper, adding still more to its accessibility. The location of North New York is healthy and pleasant, and where pure air and other advantages of a rural home can be as fully secured and enjoyed as it could be twenty miles further out of town, while the distance from the upper portion of the Central Park is less than two miles, and therefore quite as accessible as from any point of the city of New York below Twenty-eighth street.

The land is high (sand and gravel) and commands a fine view of the Harlem river and Long Island Sound. Special care will be taken to guard the neighborhood from the existence of nuisances of any kind, and to render it a permanently attractive home for those who wish to shun the more crowded thoroughfares of the metropolis. To those wishing to purchase, either for investment or for the purpose of building, this sale will afford an opportunity seldom met with. The title is undisputable, having until recently belonged to Col. Morris, whose title runs back two hundred years.

For maps and further particulars apply to the auctioneers, No. 5½ Pine street, N. Y.
