CITY COMMERCIAL REPORT.

SATURDAY, August 29—2 P. M.

The day has been, on the whole, a quiet one in general busines. A fair demand prevailed for flour, particularly State and Ohio shipping brands, which a few leading receivers sold freely at, in some instances, a shade lower prices; but holders generally complain of the dulness of the market.

Buyers of wheat made considerable inquiries for desirable lots early in the day, but were not willing to pay asking prices, and transactions were consequently restricted, the market closing heavily.

Sound corn was in demand, and mixed Western brought readily 70c.

Oats were selling pretty freely and were firm.

Provisions were lightly dealt in, but were otherwise unaltered.

Cotton was dull and nominal.

Whiskey was inquired for at 46½c. and held at 47c., with limited sales.

Freights were quiet and steady.
