86 in the shade Tuesday. John Millie is getting ready to build another fine residence on Cedar street. Dr. Morrison is home from a two weeks' visit in Iowa.

Miss Ida Feldman is home from her Sioux City visit. Miron Rood and wife and Floyd Cooper and Roy Osborn were over at Rock Rapids last week.

Elmer Knowlton bought the Palace Livery barn building for $3,000, and it seems to us he secured a bargain.

Austin Olson was among the old timers who came to Canton Tuesday. He had a little business in court over some ditch matters.

M. E. Brattle of Highland township was 60 years old on August 23, "but I feel like a boy yet" he said to the LEADER, "and my corn is better than ever."

Miss Inga Solem of Highland, was in town Monday to meet her father and mother on their return from Old Norway, and she was decidedly happy over their home coming.

Miss Helga Hage came down from Fergus Falls last Saturday evening, following Mrs. Skartvedt home as soon as possible after hearing the sad news of the death of little Harold Skartvedt.

Gudmund Skartvedt was called to Minneapolis this week to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the United Norwegian Lutheran church.

Percy Smith returned from Colorado, where he has been working on a government forest reserve, and left for Ames Tuesday where he will continue his school work.

G. G. Dokken was one of the Roosevelt champions who attended the reception at Sioux Falls. "He is a great man" said Gilbert, "a man who represents the hopes and ambitions of the masses, and that's why the people love him."

There were a good many pick-pockets on the crowded trains going to Sioux Falls last Saturday. Several Cantonites were touched for small sums and the light fingered soundrels were exceedingly bold. One of them was nailed in Sioux Falls.

Mrs. J. D. Cloud returned last week from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Crowell, at Chatsworth, as Mr. and Mrs. Crowell were about to leave for Denver and other Colorado points for a vacation.

Charlie Linderman advertised a stray mule last week. He found it down at Joe Millett's in Eden township. The mule came from Nebraska and was headed back for its old home. Charlie thinks a mule is just a little bit more cunning than a jack rabbit, and he wouldn't have missed it if he had said two rabbits.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Solem returned Monday from a four month trip which included most of Old Norway. Mr. Solem reports a very pleasant trip going and returning, but Norway is almost like a new country to him now.

Mr. and Mrs. Solem enjoyed good health during their absence and came home better pleased with Lincoln than ever before.

The Morning Sun (Iowa) News Herald States: "Dr. A. E. Burill, a pastor of the Methodist church in Morning Sun some eleven years ago, visited with old friends here over Sunday. He preached a most excellent sermon at the Methodist church on Sunday morning, and was greeted by a large audience, and all considered it a great pleasure to hear him again. Dr. Burill is now pastor of the Methodist church at Canton, S. Dak. He and his wife and daughter are spending a short vacation with Mr. Pleasant relatives.

W. S. Crane, one of the pioneer farmers of Brooklyn township, was in Canton this week attending court as a juror. Mr. Crane has a splendid home and farm and finds plenty of joy in life looking after his property. "I don't come to town very often" he said to the editor Tuesday, "therefore you can move the date on my LEADER up to 1912" Everything in Brooklyn in the crop line is first class and a couple of weeks more of good weather will put every thing out of danger and make the coming crop of corn the best ever raised in this part of the country.

Artist Siglar has painted a banner for the Canton Grand Army contingent which will be carried in the grand parade at the national encampment at Atlantic City this month. The banner will represent Dakota wealth in the shape of cattle, corn and wheat, and the veterans will carry big ears of corn attached to a staff and topped with a small flag. Col. Staff is at the head of this banner advertising and we believe he and his comrades will carry the best corn raised west of Chicago. Mr. Siglar did his part to perfection and his painting will be admired by thousands, and many of them will wish they lived in South Dakota, the home of peace, plenty and prosperity.

The Cantonites who went to Sioux Falls last Saturday managed to get home by train, auto and horseback. It was the biggest crowd Canton ever turned out for a trip. They were all delighted with the Roosevelt reception and speech. Thomas Thorson and Dr. Hummer attended the banquet. The doctor got home by auto at 5 A. M., and had plenty of company on the road. It was the biggest and happiest event in the history of the state, and no one enjoyed it better than Col. Roosevelt. There was over two thousand boomers from this county in Sioux Falls Saturday, and they all love Col. Roosevelt better after seeing and hearing him.

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house."

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the State of South Dakota.

To the people of the State of South Dakota: The Eleventh Legislative Assembly of the state of South Dakota, begun and held at Pierre, the capital of the state, on January 14, 1909, and concluded on the fifth day of March, 1909, proposed the following Amendment to the Constitution of the state, to-wit: That Article XI of the Constitution of the state of South Dakota be amended so as to read as follows:

ARTICLE XI. Section 1. The legislature shall provide for an annual tax, sufficient to defray the estimated ordinary expenses of the state for each year not to exceed in any one year two mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the state, to be ascertained as provided in this article, and to be levied on county purposes.

Section 2. And whenever it shall appear that such ordinary expenses shall exceed the income of the state for such year, the legislature shall provide for the levying of a tax, not to exceed in any one year two mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the state, to be ascertained as provided in this article, and to be levied on county purposes.

Section 3. The legislature shall provide for levying a tax annually, sufficient to pay the annual interest and the principal of such debt within the term of years from the date of the law creating the debt. Provided, that the annual tax for the payment of the interest and principal of the public debt shall not exceed in any one year two mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the state, as ascertained by the last assessment made for state and county purposes.

Section 4. All taxes shall be uniform on all property and shall be levied and collected for public purposes only. The failure of each subject of taxation shall be so liable in money that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his or her property. Franchises and licenses to do business in the state, franchise earnings and net incomes, shall be considered in taxing corporations and the power to tax corporate property shall not be surrendered or assumed by any contract or grant to which the state shall be a party. The legislature shall provide by general law for the assessing and levying of taxes on all corporate property, as near as may be, by the same method as that provided for the assessing and levying of taxes on individual property.

Section 5. The legislature shall provide for taxing all moneys, credits, investments, bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise, and also for taxing the notes and bills discounted or purchased by money lenders, and all other property, effects or dues of every description, of all banks and bankers, so that all property employed in banking shall always be subject to a taxation equal to that imposed on the property of individuals.

Section 6. The legislature may classify inheritance, devise, legacies and bequests and gifts in view of death in respect to the receipt thereof, and may provide for a graduated or progressive tax thereon, with such exemptions to the surviving husband or wife, children and other relatives as it may prescribe.

Section 7. The legislature shall classify in pursuance of a law which shall distinguish the object of the same, to which the tax only shall be applied.

Section 8. All taxes levied and collected for state purposes shall be paid into the state treasury. No indebtedness shall be incurred or money expended by the state, and no warrants shall be drawn upon the state treasury, except in pursuance of an appropriation for the specific purpose first made.

Section 9. The legislature shall provide by suitable enactment for carrying this article into effect. Section 10. The legislature may vest the corporate authorities of cities, towns and villages with power to make local improvements by special taxation of contiguous property or otherwise.

For all corporate purposes, all municipal corporations may be vested with authority to assess and collect taxes, but such taxes shall be uniform with respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the body levying the same.

Section 11. The making of a profit, directly or indirectly, out of state, county, city, town or school district money, or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, shall be deemed a felony and shall be punishable as provided by law.

Section 12. An accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public moneys shall be published annually, in such manner as the legislature may provide.

The proposed Amendment will be voted upon by the people at the general election to be held in this state on Tuesday, the 30th day of November, 1910. The proposed Amendment will be printed upon the ballot followed by the words: "Shall the above amendment to the constitution in relation to taxation and the amount of tax to be levied be approved and ratified?" Immediately to the left of which shall be printed the words "Yes" and "No," each preceded by a square in which the elector can place a cross to indicate his vote. Electors desiring to vote "Yes" will place a cross before the word "Yes," and those desiring to vote "No" will place a cross before the word "No."

Dated at Pierre, the Capital, this 5th day of July, A. D. 1910. SAMUEL C. POLZER, Secretary of State.
