THE DRAFT.

Proceedings Before the Enrolling Board in New York and Brooklyn.

THE EXAMINATIONS AND EXEMPTIONS.

THE DRAWING IN THE TENTH DISTRICT, &c., &c., &c.

THE DRAFT IN NEW YORK.

Examinations and Exemptions.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

The Board of Enrolment of the Fourth Congressional district, Captain Joel B. Erhardt, Provost Marshal, met again yesterday morning, at their headquarters, No. 271 Broadway. The attendance was smaller than on any previous day, the whole number of examinations not exceeding thirty, of which number only two were held for duty, and ten furnished substitutes. The HERALD's warning to delinquent conscripts, to appear before the Board of Enrolment and save themselves from the fate of deserters, has caused many to take a deeper interest in their personal welfare than they would otherwise have done, and it is hoped that another week will entirely finish this branch of the business of the Provost Marshal of this district. The Board of Enrolment have issued a notice to drafted men who have appeared in answer to their summonses, but failed to obtain a hearing in consequence of the crowd, to appear at their headquarters on the following days, or be arrested and punished as deserters:—First ward (to day), September 24; Second ward, September 25; Third ward, September 26; Fourth ward, September 28 and 29; Fifth ward, September 30 and October 1; Sixth ward, October 2 and 3; and the Eighth ward, October 4 and 5. It will be observed, therefore, that to day the last chance for delinquents from the First ward is offered to escape the fate of deserters. It is well to add, also, that all drafted persons who fail to appear before the Board on the days above specified will be debarred the privilege now extended to them of furnishing substitutes or paying the three hundred dollar exemption fee, and will be at once transferred to the district rendezvous at Riker's Island, to serve in the war for three years unless sooner discharged. The examinations of yesterday developed nothing of special interest, except the case of a young man named W. A. Tyler, of No. 18 West street, who was drafted in company with his two brothers, one of whom was conscripted in Brooklyn and the other in Rhode Island. He furnished a substitute and had paid the exemption fee for his two brothers. The whole number of conscripts sent to the Fourth Congressional district rendezvous at Riker's Island yesterday was ten. Aggregate number sent to rendezvous, one hundred and forty-seven.

The exemption papers of the following individuals are now made out and await the claims of their owners:—Joseph Bruiter, Barnum's Museum; Chas. Firman, 118 Hudson st.; James Scholl, 536 Broome st.; William Richardson, Howard Hotel; James Burns, 43 Oliver st.; Albert Levy, 86 Grand st.; George W. Smith, 334 Liberty st.; Timothy Buckley, 16 Washington st.; A. C. Ellis, 335 Broadway; James Marshall, 48 Warren st.; James G. Gregory, 58 Reade st.; John Brady, 675 Greenwich st.; Robert L. Zimmerman, 133 Washington street; Hugh McMurray, 28 Leonard street; Charles Merkle, 106 Centre street; William E. Robinson, 370 Front street; A. G. Wittenhoffer, 293 Broadway; J. B. Langley, 126 Duane street; Isaac Morris, 189 Greenwich street; L. Richardson, 108 Fulton street; John Bach, 122 Church street; Thomas Keehie, 213 Franklin street; Joseph Morgan, 307 Broadway; William M. Humphreys, 92 Chambers street; Daniel H. THE SIXTH DISTRICT.

The attendance at this office was the same as on the two previous days, and as the number of persons coming forward are so few, the Board will not sit for the future until ten A. M.

Although the Board adjourn regularly at four P. M., the minor details (in the minor office), which must also be attended to, very often keep the members of the Board and their employes busy until a late hour at night. At half past nine o'clock on Tuesday night, an Irishman named Patrick Smith, one of the first of the substitutes who had left "off leave" of the Provost Marshal, came to the office in Chatham street, and on seeing him said—"Yes, there is the man that hated me. I am after spending my two hundred dollars, and I'll be damned if any consumptive substitute money of mine (alluding to the ten dollars received paid for the speechless one's deserter). He will have to expect to be deserted for the pleasure of having a spree."

John Marshall, who was recognized as a deserter from the One Hundred and Fifty second New York Volunteers, as he was about going on board the boat, to be conveyed to Riker's Island a few days since, gave information to Provost Marshal that a Mr. O'Donnell, who keeps a boarding house in Cherry street, induced him to desert. On being confronted with O'Donnell he identified him as the person who supplied him with clothing to wear instead of his uniform, and also brought him to the Provost Marshal's office. O'Donnell has been for a few days in the Provost Marshal's custody, who was endeavoring to sift the matter clearly. On Tuesday a warrant was granted, and O'Donnell and an accomplice, named Kilmer, were consigned to the Tombs.

Mr. Ossman, the celebrated lecturer on Turkey, visited the headquarters for the purpose of certifying that Mr. Black, down in Putnam was a native of Turkey. Aide of Provost Marshal Erhardt's deputies brought up a substitute deserter named Paul Schonnard, a colored hooker, in custody. Schonnard was identified and sent to Governor's Island.

A conscript appeared whilst been already several times before the Board before, claiming exemption as an alien. This time, as he was suffering from a slight attack of rheumatism, he insisted that he would be exempted from disability. In this, however, he was disappointed, as the doctors decided he was fit for service.

A broker brought a substitute before the Board who was suffering from an attack of delirium tremens. He was at once rejected.

THE DRAFT IN THE TENTH DISTRICT.

The draft for the Tenth Congressional district, which includes the counties of Putnam, Westchester and Rockland, commenced yesterday at Tarrytown. The inhabitants of these counties received in proper and sufficient time official notice of the day fixed by the authorities for giving them a turn at the wheel, and from those districts first on the list a large number of people assembled to witness this novel proceeding, and to ascertain at the earliest moment the fate in store for those returned to the collectors as liable to be drawn for the service of the country. Nine o'clock, the hour appointed for proceeding to business, saw a numerous gathering around the office of the Provost Marshal, in Main street, among whom were a pretty large sprinkling of the Metropolitan police, sent for the preservation of order and to secure the officers engaged in completing the draft from all interruption. The force was under the command of Inspector Dilks and Captain Copeland. There were also temporarily stationed in the town three companies of the Twenty sixth Minnesota regiment, a company of the Invalid force and a section of the Second Connecticut battery. The services of the strong force were, as far as yesterday was concerned, entirely unnecessary and uncalled for. The people who thronged around the office where the drawing took place, and filled every available spot inside and outside the barriers, were rather stirred with feelings of good humor and enjoyment of the results of the drawing than of hostility or opposition thereto.

The arrangements made by Provost Marshal Captain M. J. Leonard, and the Commissioner, Mr. James Rider, were admirable, and in consequence the quiet and orderly manner in which the drawing was conducted, and the opportunity afforded to all to see that fair play was done, contributed materially to the harmony that prevailed. Mr. Sheriff Tripp was in attendance during the day ready to co-operate in any necessary manner with the government officials. The Supervisors and several committees previously selected in the different sub districts, were punctually in attendance, and no delay occurred in depositing the lists in the wheel.

As in all similar cases, a man blindfold was selected to draw the names. From time to time, as the name of some well known neighbor or perhaps present was called out as honored with an invitation from Uncle Sam to serve his country, the crowd would give expressions to their delight in noisy laughter and bantering words of mock condolence, all of which was invariably well received by the hapless butt of the occasion. Upwards of 1,141 names were drawn, including the quota of Putnam county and part of that of Westchester county. To-day the draft for Westchester county will be resumed and concluded, and to-morrow Rockland county will be put through the wheel.

During the proceedings yesterday the reporters of the press received all due attention from Marshal Leonard and Commissioner Rider and their subordinates.

The following is the result of yesterday's drawing:—
