The Board of Enrolment of the Fourth Congressional district, Captain Joel B. Erhardt, Provost Marshal, met again yesterday morning at the usual hour. The examinations in this district grow smaller by degrees and beautifully less every day. Half a dozen days more will probably finish the business. Yesterday less than thirty cases were adjudicated—the smallest number for one day since the Board organized. They developed nothing of interest to the public. The substitute agents and brokers transacted a considerable business and realized heavy profits, as usual. Seven substitutes were sworn into the federal service who received in the aggregate the sum of fourteen hundred dollars, leaving a balance of seven hundred dollars in favor of the brokers. Our reporter learns from good authority that one broker in this district has realized thirteen thousand dollars since the examination of exemption claims began, who was previously working in a down town establishment for six dollars per week. The substitutes furnished yesterday were principally intelligent Frenchmen and Spaniards. The examinations of to day will, in all probability, be as small as those of yesterday. There are many delinquent drafted men in the Fourth ward, who will have their last chance to report to the Board of Enrolment to-day. It is well to state that, notwithstanding the seeming obstinacy of the delinquent drafted men in the First, Second and Third wards, the Provost Marshal will grant them an examination, notwithstanding their time is past, provided they will obey his summons immediately. Provost Marshal Erhardt will enforce the law in his district, and it will, therefore, be wise for all delinquents to look to their interests.

The exemption papers of the following named individuals are now made out and await the application of the owners:—William A. Ross, 39 Madison st., physical disability; George Allen, pier No. 1 North river, non-resident; Henry Frostbran, 14 Chatham st., furnished substitute; Edward Darrell, 15 Beaver st., non-resident; John Clare, No. 9 Washington st., furnished substitute; Thomas Higgins, of New York, furnished substitute. Parties applying for the above should do so between the hours of two and three o'clock in the afternoon, in order to facilitate the business of the Board. The following is the list for yesterday, with the disposition of each case:—

FURNISHED SUBSTITUTES.

A. Tornelli, William and Chambers sts., furnished Morpack Henry; Peter Bunston, 85 James st., furnished Antoine Hoic; Conrad Smith, 22 Thames st., furnished John Brown; William P. The Board adjourned at one P. M. until ten A. M. on Monday.

The Board of Exemption for this district resumed the hearing of cases at 11 A. M. yesterday. During the day no case of any importance occurred to relieve the monotony of the usual routine of examination. Many persons appear before the Board without having their documentary proofs arranged. The Board will not receive any papers as evidence that are not stamped. The Board had to refer a case in consequence of a document signed by the United States Consul at St. John, N. B., having the date written in such a manner as to be misunderstood. None of the members of the Board are individually responsible for the delay in receiving the ten cases on Thursday last. Those cases were referred in consequence of a slight misunderstanding between the Provost Marshal and the other members. Captain Mettee, and to Colonel Nugent, had an interview with the members of the Board yesterday, the result of which has not been made public yet. It appears that the large profits made by the regular substitute brokers have induced many other sharp individuals to try their luck in the same line.

On the 15th of this month a tailor, named Klein, arrived in this city from Hartford, Conn., in search of employment. Having, in the absence of the driver, driven off a team and stage on the Eighth avenue, he was committed to prison for feloniously absconding. A few days after he was brought to Captain Farr's office by the driver of the Jefferson Market coach, and paid $300 for a substitute, he receiving only $100, while the person who paid the cash certifies that he paid $280 to the interpreter for the man. The $100 he received was sent to his wife, who, on receipt of the letter, consulted a lawyer, and then, by his instructions, came on here. On stating her case to Captain Farr he instructed Mr. Stephens, Deputy Provost Marshal, to investigate the matter, which Mr. Stephens did very cleverly. On Saturday Mr. Stephens directed the interpreter to appear before Capt. Farr. The interpreter appealed to Judge Kelly, who, it appears, directed him not to appear except he was compelled by force of arms. The Judge himself waited on Capt. Farr on Saturday evening, but the interpreter did not.

The case rests so at present.

The following is a list of the cases decided during the day:—

THE NINTH DISTRICT.

The Board of Enrolment of the above district met yesterday as usual, and transacted considerable business. As to the names of those who make application for exemption, there seems to be a delicacy on the part of the employees of this district to furnish the same. The following, however, is the general result of yesterday's work in this district:—

Total number who reported	103
Number of drafted men held	35
Paid commutation for men held on previous days	6
Exempted for disability	20
Exempted for all other causes	25
Number laid over for further consideration	23
Substitutes accepted for men held on previous days	14
Sent to general rendezvous	14
Total examined	80

The Two Million Dollars Exemption Loan.

The only subscription to this loan yesterday was one of six thousand dollars. This makes the total amount, up to the present date, subscribed, eight hundred and ninety-three thousand five hundred dollars.

The Riot Claims.

NAMES OF PARTIES GRANTED RELIEF.

The Supervisors' Committee on Claims hold meetings regularly every day, for the purpose of examining the great number of cases which have been presented for their consideration. About two thousand cases have come before the committee, and less than one third of these have been passed upon. Every applicant for relief is required to prove under oath three facts, viz:—

1. The ownership of the property alleged to have been destroyed or damaged.

2. Its actual value at the time of its damage or destruction, and

3. That such property was destroyed or damaged by, or in direct consequence of, the riot.

Many of the claims presented are said to have been grossly exaggerated, and many others cannot be allowed under the provisions of the statute of 1863. Among those not allowed are included all cases of bodily injuries, loss of life, interruption of business, &c.

The committee intend to report a number of cases to the Board of Supervisors to-day for final action. Relief has been already granted to the following parties:—

The Draft in Albany.

ALBANY, Sept. 28, 1863.

The draft commenced in this city this morning, and is progressing quietly.

The Turf.

UNION COURSE, L. I.—TROTTING.

MONDAY, September 28, sweepstakes $450, mile heats, best three in five, in harness.

S. McLaughlin entered bk. g. Lancet	1	1	1
B. Woodruff entered cr. g. General McClellan	2	2	2
J. Grother entered bk. m. Sunnyside	drawn

Time, 2:31½—2:31½—2:33½.

Sunnyside did not come to the score at the appointed time, and Lancet and McClellan had the race by themselves. Lancet was the favorite at one hundred to sixty just previous to the start. There was a very good attendance, and everything passed off satisfactorily, the race being closely contested from beginning to end. The track was a little heavy in some places; but, as a whole, no fault could be found with it. The improvements on this time-honored course are now finished, and a more complete race track is not on this continent at the present day.

First Heat.—The horses came up at a tremendous rate for the word, McClellan on the point of breaking when the word was given. Hiram could not keep him on his feet, and he broke up before he got fifty yards from the stand, and beat four or five lengths. As soon as the yellow horse squared himself Hiram sent him along splendidly, and he closed finely down the backstretch and around the lower turn; but as soon as he reached the wheel of Lancet McLaughlin let the black loose, and in a moment there was daylight again between them. It was evident that the black was himself again and in his old form, quite able to knock 2:30 into smithereens when called on. McClellan made a succession of fine attempts to overtake Lancet, but he was shook off each time handsomely, and the black came home a winner by a length in 2:31½.

Second Heat.—One of the backers of Lancet now offered one thousand to four hundred that he would win. That bet, with several other smaller ones, was taken before the horses came on the track for the heat. They both showed excellent condition, having sweat out freely and dried up nicely during the twenty minutes allowed between heats. A good square start followed a few ineffectual attempts to get away evenly, and they dashed around the turn very close together. Lancet was a length ahead at the quarter pole in thirty-six seconds and three quarters, and about the same distance in front at the half mile pole in 1:13, well in hand, with something to spare when needed. Hiram shook up the yellow fellow to his utmost capacity, but he could not get his head past the wheel of the old "slashing black gelding," and as he approached the score he exhibited unmistakable signs of having a bellows to mend. The brush, having been kept up for the full mile, was somewhat too much for him. Lancet won by three lengths, making the heat in 2:31½.

Third Heat.—The interest which at first was so strong in regard to the contest was now pretty much played out, and Lancet was backed to win one hundred to ten could have had for the asking; but there were no offers. The horses had a square send off, and went side and side for two hundred yards. Lancet then drew in front, taking a lead of a length to the quarter pole, which point he passed in thirty-seven and a half seconds, and, keeping up the pace, went to the half mile pole in 1:15. From there around the lower turn McClellan lay at the wheel of the black, as he had done in the previous heats, but could not get any nearer. Coming up to the score, however, Hiram put on an extra force of steam, and brought McClellan to within half a length of the head of the black, and in that way they entered the score, Lancet winning in 2:35½.

To-day there will be a trot for $1,000 at the Fashion Course.

Personal Intelligence.

Archbishop Purcell, who recently made an application to the rebel authorities to visit Mobile on business connected with the Catholic church, was refused a passage through the rebel lines, and has returned home.

Lizzie Brosen, belonging to Bristol, Pa., who served, under the name of Charles Davis, a three months term in the Fourth New York militia, has been discovered in a Pennsylvania cavalry regiment. She was brought before the Philadelphia authorities on Sunday, and was ordered to give up Uncle Sam's uniform and go back to her home.

Lord Lyons and suite, from Boston; Charles Jeffry, of England; Major E. B. Hunt, of United states Engineers; D. Frothingham, of Boston; H. Hooper and wife, of Cincinnati; H. T. Mackie and wife, of Portland, and W. J. Gordon, of Cleveland, are stopping at the Brevoort House.
