Court of General Sessions.

Before Recorder Hoffman.

TRIAL OF A VERY OLD OFFENDER—MR. GARVIN'S SUCCESSOR.

Dec. 11—In the Court of General Sessions this morning, before Recorder Hoffman, John A. Canter, alias Chas. F. Brett, alias Charles Day, was placed on trial for forgery in the second degree. The prisoner has a very considerable notoriety from the fact that the prisoner has already been convicted several times for similar offences, and for which he resided in the State prison over seventeen years. He is a quiet, inoffensive looking man, speaks several languages and is a first rate penman. On the present indictment he is charged with having tendered a counterfeit two dollar bill on the Exchange Bank of Passaic River, N. J., in payment for two drinks, at the liquor store No. 48 Ann street, kept by Henry Levie. The spurious character of the bill was discovered by a broker to whom it was sent to be changed. Canter attempted to leave the store, but was prevented by Mr. Levie, and a struggle ensued, during which Canter snatched the bill out of Levie's hand and swallowed it. The above facts were all sworn to, and the Recorder, in his charge to the jury, stated that the principal point upon which the guilt or innocence of the prisoner was to be decided, was simply the question as to whether he knew the character of the bill before attempting to utter it. The jury remained out about four hours, and, failing to agree, the Recorder discharged them and remanded the prisoner back to prison.

It is rumored that Mr. Robert C. Hutchings, ex-member of assembly, will be appointed Assistant District Attorney, in the place made vacant by Mr. Garvin's elevation to the bench of the Superior Court. We are inclined to believe that old Dame Rumor in this instance gives reliable intelligence.

Dec. 12—In the Court of General Sessions this morning Recorder Hoffman sentenced Wm. Thompson, a colored man, to the State prison for three years and four months, for assaulting Jacob Jones, also colored, with a dangerous weapon. John Gilligan was sent to the penitentiary for two years, for forgery in the fourth degree. Jane Nagle was sent to the same place for one year, for assaulting Mary Ann Mullen with a poniard.
