Miscellaneous.

BR SHIP CHARLES—Capt Bahr, of the Bremen bark Schiller at this port, reports—Nov 25, lat 41 21, lon 29, passed the Br ship Charles, of Dartmouth, apparently lumber loaded. She had a large hole in her bow, through which at every lurch the water washed in and out. She was under close reefed main topsail, and labored very heavily in the trough of the sea. Two boats were lying on top of the deckhouse. She had apparently been abandoned for a long time.

BR BARK FLOWERY LAND—The Mercurio del Vapor of Dec 1 says a mutiny had occurred on board the Br bark Flowery Land, which sailed from London July 28 for Singapore with a general cargo. The captain, his wife and several others were murdered. The mutineers immediately made themselves masters of the ship, and after having bored her, leaving the passengers to perish shut up in the cabin, they went off in the boats near Cape Santa Maria, and reached land near Rocha, where the authorities threw them into prison.

BR BARK USK, from Swansea for Calderas with coal, took fire Nov 10, at 6 AM, and was abandoned next day, in lat 33 8, lon 71 W. The Constitucional of Copiapo states that the Usk carried gunpowder and coal; and as soon as the fire broke out, and the impossibility was seen of extinguishing it without grave risk on account of the powder, the crew left in two boats, directing their course for Coquimbo. In the night the boats got separated. The boat with the captain was picked up by the Chilean schr Frio; the other, with the mate and seven men, was taken up by the Chilean steamer Guayacan, near Coquimbo. It is believed that the fire broke out spontaneously in the coal, and that, although the crew succeeded in throwing overboard about four tons of powder, there was no hope of saving the ship.

BR BARK MERCURIO, at Portland from Boston, reports Dec 30, 12 M, Marblehead bearing NW 12 miles, passed the stern of a brig of about 350 tons, with a house on deck painted green and black bulwarks. She had apparently broken in two just forward of the mainmast. Salem Light bearing NW 10 miles passed the main deck of a vessel, probably belonging to the same brig.

BARK MARY STETSON, of New York, from Pensacola and Key West for Boston, put into Holmes' Hole 34 inst, with crew frostbitten. Had also lost and split sails, and lost an anchor with 75 fathoms chain.

BRIG WM MASON, Small, from Mansanilla for Boston, put into Holmes' Hole 24 inst. She anchored in Vineyard Sound night of 31st ult in a SE gale, and had to cut away foremast to prevent dragging ashore. The mast, rigging and sails were lost.

BR BRIG PEACOCK (before reported) was totally wrecked at East Caicos previous to 19th ult. (Brig Peacock, Green, cld at this port Nov 18 for Aux Cayes. She was 197 tons, A2, and hailed from Halifax.)

SCHR GEN KNOX—Hysanais, Jan 4—Steamer Island Home has just arrived and reports the schr Gen Knox, of Thomaston, ashore on the south side of Muskeget Island, among the Rips. It being imprudent to stop on board, all hands left the schr in boats, and pulled ashore at Tuckernuck. The General Knox is loaded with timber and is bound to "St Johns."

SCHR OCEAN WAVE (of Bangor), Turner, hence, arrived at Salem 1st inst, during a heavy gale and thick fog, and anchored inside of Beverly Bar, but dragged ashore near the foot of Osgood street. She will have to be discharged before she can get off.

SLOOP WM H BOWEN, hence for Providence, was towed into New London harbor morning of 2d inst. One of her men had his head frozen in a frightful manner, and it was thought he could not survive. The others suffered in their legs and arms.
