Miscellaneous.

Ship Witch of the Wave, Todd, hence for San Francisco, put into Callao 15th ult for slight repairs, and proceeded on the 20th.
Ship Westward Ho, formerly of Boston, but for some years past under the Peruvian flag, was burned on the 27th ult at Callao, and will prove a total loss, having sunk at her anchors. She was all fitted for a voyage to China, and was owned by Don Juan de Ugarte, of Lima.
Ship Andrains—On the 25th ult Capt Cutting, of the American ship Adelaide, was presented by the British Board of Trade with a valuable binocular to escape for saving the capt and crew of the ship Polynesia, of Liverpool, in December last. When Capt Cutting sighted the ship she was waterlogged and the crew reduced to the last extremity, having nothing to eat, and a little rain water to drink. She had previously been passed by ten vessels, but none had taken notice of her position, and had it not been for Capt Cutting the whole crew would probably have perished.
Scow Shenandoah, Dexter, from Boston for Hilton Head, put into Nassau, NP, Feb 22, in distress, leaky. Was compelled to throw overboard about 100 bbls cargo. It was uncertain whether she would be condemned or repaired.
Scow Gonverneur, King, from Rockland for New York, when coming through Hell Gate Monday evening, was run into by steamer Empire State, and sunk. Her cargo becoming wet, she was soon on fire, and was put ashore on Ward's Island, where she now lies, and will be about a total loss.
Scow John Wesley—The schr reported as being ashore on the Middle Channel, Hell Gate, proves to be the John Wesley, of Wilfleet, laden with fish. She has since been got off and taken into Hallet's Cove, where she now lies in the mud.
Barge, Feb 27—The Ernest and Charles, Saulnry, from Antwerp for Boston, anchored in the roads an hour ago, in a sinking state, and the master is gone to ask the admiral for a steamer to tow her into harbor. He reports that a similar accident happened to the vessel at Antwerp, where she had to be partly unloaded and repaired. He thinks that the present damage is in the upper works, and that only a part of the cargo need be discharged.
Gernsey, Feb 29—Ship John Bull, Gorer, sailed from this port on the 10th February with a general cargo, bound for Boston. On Friday, the 18th, at 2 A M, a heavy gale sprung up from the south, which lasted till noon of the following Sunday, the 20th, during which the ship continued to labor heavily, and the crew to shift. By this time the ship was 30 miles west of Tory, when it was deemed advisable to put back and have the cargo partially resowed.
