

THE CANTON LEADER

ARTHUR LINN, Editor and Proprietor. KINSEY K. FOBES, Business Manager.

For President in 1912, THEODORE ROOSEVELT. Shall the people or the money power rule?

The progressives must continue to organize.

"He that is without sin let him cast the first stone."

The cause of the people is just, organize for the fight.

The death of Colonel McCook in New York last week, was the last of the "fighting McCooks," and a brother of General Ed. McCook killed at Yankton in 1873.

The Canton LEADER, which is "for Roosevelt in 1912," devoted three columns last week to an "expose" of a Burke-Gamble combine against Crawford.

The Brookings Brother don't read understandingly.

We Never Break a Promise.

Col. Linn, of The Farmer's LEADER, would like awful well to follow our advice and remove that "Roosevelt for President" motto from the head of his leading editorial column.

The Huron meeting did not turn out to be a hair pulling match between Senator Crawford and Dick Richards as predicted by the reactionaries.

President Taft is off and away on his 13000 mile trip and the campaign for the republican nomination for president in 1912 is on.

Thanks to our leader, Mr. Larson of Grant, who so kindly reminded the Merry Widow and the Perkins county scribe as to their duties to the LEADER staff.

Notice to Construct Sidewalks.

Resolution declaring the necessity for the construction of permanent sidewalks, consisting of cement, along and in front of the lots and parcels of land on the street in the city of Canton, South Dakota, hereinafter described.

Be it resolved and ordered by the Mayor and Board of Commissioners of the city of Canton, South Dakota:

That it is necessary that a permanent sidewalk of the width here provided be laid on or before the 2nd day of October 1911, upon the street and along and in front of the lots and parcels of land respectively described as follows, to-wit:

Lots One (1) and Four (4), of Block 29, in Hill's Addition to the city of Canton, South Dakota.

That all sidewalks shall be constructed of cement, as by ordinance No. 190 of the city of Canton, South Dakota, and shall be a permanent improvement upon and along said street, and the owners of said lots and parcels of ground are ordered to construct the same within said time, and if the owner or any of them fail to construct the same within the time herein provided, then the said city of Canton will let a contract for the construction of said permanent sidewalk, not so constructed by the owners in which case the cost of the construction of such sidewalk including incidentals will be assessed as a special tax against the abutting property, lots and parcels of ground, and shall be a lien in law and against the owners thereof, as by the laws of the state and ordinances provided. And notice to construct is hereby given.

Passed by a majority vote of the Board of Commissioners of the city of Canton, this 19th day of September, 1911.

Countersigned: GEO. HOGENSEN, City Auditor.
