The Coming Draft.

IMPORTANT LETTER TO ASSISTANT PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL HAYS—QUOTA OF NEW YORK AND BROOKLYN 30,780, ETC.

The following has been received by Assistant Provost Marshal General Hays:—

WAR DEPARTMENT,
PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19, 1864.

Brigadier General WM. HAYS, Asst. Provost Marshal General, Southern Division, New York city:—

GENERAL—I am directed by the Provost Marshal General to inform you that the quota of the Southern division of the State of New York, under the call of the President for 500,000 men, of date July 18, 1864, is 35,855.

The quotas of the different Congressional districts have been calculated under the enrolment recently completed, without regard to any excess or deficiency your division may have on former calls, and are as follows:—

Dist.	No.	Dist.	No.
1	2,853	6	3,485
2	4,229	7	4,239
3	3,574	8	4,346
4	4,071	9	3,038
5	3,971	10	2,662
Total			35,855

This quota you will divide pro rata among the different sub-districts, and the quota of each will be reduced by any excess it may now have over all calls heretofore made, or increased by its deficiencies on such calls, as the case may be.

You will embody this quota in your next monthly return of quotas and credit to this office, and will keep strict account with each sub-district. I am, sir, very respectfully, yours, &c. T. A. DODGE,
Captain Veteran Reserve corps, in charge of the Enrolment Bureau.

Gen. Hays also received the following telegram yesterday:—

WASHINGTON, July 19, 1864.

General HAYS:—

Men furnished under the call of July 18, whether enlisted for one, two or three years, as well as all excess or deficiency of three years men on calls heretofore made, will count as man for man. The equalization of the amount of military service rendered by the different States and parts of States will be effected hereafter.

JAMES B. FRY, Provost Marshal General.

The Seventy-[illegible]enth Regiment National Guard.

This regiment did not get off yesterday, according to expectation. On the mustering officer making his appearance but two hundred and fifty men were found to answer to their names. A large number of boys have been recruited for the regiment, who will no doubt be rejected by the mustering officer.

GENERAL ORDER—NO. 12.

HEADQUARTERS, SEVENTY SEVENTH REGT., N. Y. S. N. G.,
New York, July 20, 1864.

This regiment will depart for Washington to-day, 21st inst. Commandants of companies will have their commands at headquarters, Lafayette Hall, Broadway, at eight o'clock A. M. Every member of this command must report for duty. By order

Colonel THOMAS LYNCH, Commanding.
JOHN B. BRADY, Sergeant Major.

The Ninety-ninth Regiment National Guard.

The above corps expect to leave for Washington this afternoon. The regiment is nearly full, and will do credit to the service. Colonel O'Mahony is working night and day in the organization of his command.

GENERAL ORDER NUMBER TWO.

HEADQUARTERS, NINTY-NINTH REGIMENT, N. Y. S. N. G.,
New York, July 21, 1864.

This regiment having been delayed by some officers failing to report their commands, at the hour designated in instructions published in the circular dated the 20th instant, it is again announced that the muster into the United States service will be on Thursday, the 21st instant, at ten o'clock A. M.

I. Commandants of companies will be held strictly responsible for the appearance of all men whose names appear upon their muster rolls. They must compel all who have signed their rolls to be present. An armed guard will be furnished them from these headquarters for that purpose. None are exempt who have not furnished substitutes. By order of

JOHN O'MAHONY, Colonel Commanding.
R. NORRIS, Adjutant.

Reception of the Second Regiment, Sickles' Brigade.

The above gallant regiment will be formally received this afternoon. The Seventy first regiment National Guard will parade upon the occasion. Col. Trafford has issued the following order:—

GENERAL ORDER—NO. 13.

HEADQUARTERS, SEVENTY-FIRST REGIMENT N. G. S. N. Y.,
New York, July 20, 1864.

In compliance with division and brigade orders, this regiment will parade in fatigue uniform on Thursday, July 21 for the purpose of receiving and escorting the Seventy-first regiment New York Volunteers, Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Rafferty commanding. The line will be formed in Broome street, on the north side, the right resting on Broadway, at quarter-past two o'clock P. M. The field and staff will report to the Colonel, dismounted, at the armory at two o'clock. The companies, non-commissioned staff, band and drum corps will report to the Adjutant, on the parade ground, at two o'clock. In compliance with orders from general headquarters, commandants of companies are directed to recruit their companies to the maximum number in as short a time as possible.

By order of BENJ. L. TRAFFORD, Colonel,
Commanding Seventy-first regiment N. G. S. N. Y.
EDWARD KIRKLAND, Sergeant Major.
JOHN R. LIVERMORE, Adjutant.

OFFICIAL THANKS TO THE SEVENTY-FIRST NEW YORK VOLUNTEERS.

The following extract speaks for itself:—

As the exigency which called for the services of troops to defend Washington has gone by, I desire publicly to thank the following officers of the Seventy-first New York Volunteers:—

Lieutenants G. W. Brower, M. H. Brien, Clinton Braddaw, and James M. Curtis, and Quartermaster Sergeant Charles Estelle.

GEORGE C. THOMAS,
Major General Commanding Militia and Volunteers.
WASHINGTON, July 14, 1864.

The Friends of McClellan in Council.

A GRAND MASS MEETING TO BE HELD IN UNION SQUARE ON THE 10TH OF AUGUST—THE REMOVAL OF COLONEL BOWMAN AND MAJOR KLITZ CONSIDERED, ETC.

The meeting of the McClellan Central Committee, which was held last evening at the Sinclair House, was, in point of numbers and enthusiasm, one of the most significant political meetings held in this city since the present political campaign commenced. Hiram Ketchum, Jr., President of the Central Organization, occupied the chair, and in calling the meeting to order referred to a resolution passed at a previous meeting in relation to holding a mass meeting in Union square, for the purpose of showing the Chicago Convention and the democratic party generally, the popularity of that much abused soldier, and the necessity of nominating him for the Presidency.

After the reading of the minutes, and the transaction of some financial and other routine business, Mr. P. Curtis Ackerman, of the Fourth ward, offered a series of resolutions severely censuring the administration for the petty malice displayed in removing Colonel Bowman and Major Klitz from their commands at West Point because they did not respond to a request of Stanton and the President to prohibit General McClellan from delivering the oration on the occasion of the dedication of the monument to the memory of the officers of the regular army who fell during the present civil war.

After the passage of the resolutions the President suggested, as the next most important business to be considered, the holding of a grand mass meeting, and accordingly a gentleman offered a resolution that said meeting be held on the 2d of August, which was subsequently amended by substituting the 10th of August instead. While the motion was pending, Dr. Stevens, of the Eighteenth ward, addressed the meeting on the necessity of immediate action. He said that since the last meeting he had received information from various sources in the West, which left no doubt in his mind that the peace sentiment was fast gaining ground there, and the delegates from that section would vigorously oppose the nomination of McClellan. Secret societies had been formed all over the Western country, bound by signs, oaths and grips, to oppose his nomination; and, on the other hand, the administration was busily engaged arresting men in Kentucky and elsewhere, for no other offence than advocating his nomination. So far as the city of New York was concerned, the speaker considered it entirely unnecessary to hold a meeting at all, as more than two-thirds of the people were enthusiastically in favor of such a result; but the effect of such a demonstration as they proposed to get up would operate favorably on the people of other States, who at present are so much dissatisfied with the war that nothing but a peace platform and a peace candidate will be acceptable to them. If the meeting would have the effect of bringing the people of the West to the support of McClellan at the Chicago Convention, he was in favor of such a meeting, and the sooner the meeting was held the better.

After remarks by several other gentlemen on the same subject, by consent of all parties, the 10th of August was fixed upon as the day to hold the meeting. A motion was carried instructing the secretary and officers of the club to notify themselves in immediate communication with similar clubs in other cities, requesting them to hold mass meetings simultaneously with the one in this city, after which committees were appointed to make the necessary arrangements, and the meeting adjourned.

Terrible Disaster at Philadelphia.

FALL OF THE BLOCKLEY ALMSHOUSE LUNATIC ASYLUM—EIGHTEEN INSANE WOMEN KILLED AND TWENTY WOUNDED, ETC.

PHILADELPHIA, July 20, 1864.

A terrible disaster occurred at the Blockley Almshouse this morning, caused by the walls of the Female Lunatic Asylum being undermined by workmen.

The partition wall of the building was undermined by the workmen, who were making preparations for the introduction of new heaters, thus letting down all the floors clear to the roof.

The latest reliable accounts from the Blockley Almshouse say eighteen insane women were killed and twenty wounded. There were two hundred and twenty-nine inmates in the asylum.

The accident occurred at a quarter to six o'clock this morning. The building was supported by two immense arches, which gave way. The sitting room was filled with children.

Sixteen bodies have been already taken out.

City Intelligence.

CAUTION.—A woman has been begging or soliciting charity this week in Beaver and William streets and that vicinity, who is dressed somewhat similar to a Sister of Charity, and is accompanied by a little girl with a basket. The Sisters of Charity never go round the city to solicit contributions of any kind as this imposter does, and it would be a good thing if this hypocritical and pretentious vagrant was at once arrested.

DANGEROUS NEW COUNTERFEIT.—A new and dangerous counterfeit ten dollar note on the West Winfield Bank, New York, has lately made its appearance, and is well calculated to deceive good judges of money. The operators took the occasion to "shove the queer" just after the issue of the semi-monthly reporters. Consequently it will not be found noted in them, and the public will do well to be on their guard. The following is a description of it:—Vignette, steamer going to the right and other vessels; blacksmith erect, 10 above, on right end; sailor erect, leaning on capstan, State die above, on left end. The note is well engraved except the words "Secured by pledge of public stocks and real estate," at bottom, which are crowded too much and badly done.

Personal Intelligence.

James H. Campbell, ex-Member of Congress, from Philadelphia, has been appointed minister resident at Stockholm.

Brigadier General Ransom, formerly chief of staff under General Grant, who was wounded for the fourth time in the Red river expedition, left here yesterday to take command of a division in General Sherman's army.

Hon. T. Corwin, of Ohio, and Robert S. Wilson, Judge of the Superior Court of Chicago, are stopping at the Astor House.

Brigadier General Williams, Connecticut Volunteer infantry, and ex-Governor Seymour, of Connecticut, are at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

Lieutenant H. S. Kerr, of the British steamer Phaeton, is stopping at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.
