

THE CANTON LEADER

ARTHUR LINN,
Editor and Proprietor.
KINSEY K. FOBES,
Business Manager.

For President in 1912, THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Shall the people or the money power rule?

Under the law Judge McNulty is barred as a candidate for any office.

Tom Sterling is more progressive than the progressives who find fault with him.

Congress meets December 4th, and there will be something doing until it adjourns next May.

When a young Editor starts in on Taft and winds up with a kettle of supplements he needs a bottle of warm medicine more than anything else.

If by any terrible misfortune Gamble should be returned to the senate he would be found fighting for the trusts and a robber tariff against the interests of every farmer and business man in the state.

Color blindness in railroad conductors is described as condition of eyesight when they are unable to distinguish company money from personal. It becomes so serious at times that railroads get real ugly about it and the unfortunates.

If the republicanism of Lincoln was right? Tom Sterling is right. If the republicanism of McKinley was right?
Tom Sterling is right. If the republicanism of Roosevelt was right? Tom Sterling is right, and the LEADER defines any republican paper to show wherein the comparison is not a just one.

A real smart editor down in Michigan, offers to give only one editor in each town a tip by which he (the sucker) can secure a page ad in January that pays $25 instead of the old price. But the smart guy down in Michigan wants two dollars in advance for the tip, or in other words "how to secure the page ad." Two dollars is dirt cheap for suckers.

The average deer hunter is unfit to trust alone in the timber. One fellow in Wisconsin drove into the timber, unhitched his team and started after a deer. He got mixed up in his travels and got turned around, and seeing his horse mistook them for a deer and managed to kill them. Such a man as that is totally unfit to be left alone.

The republican party swept the country year after year with its policy of progressive legislation, until Mr.
Taft and his backers opposed a progressive policy and the people put democracy in charge of the lower house of congress. If Mr. Taft and his backers continue to oppose progressive legislation in the coming session of congress, nothing but a progressive candidate can save the party in 1912.

Col. Roosevelt says he will not support any man for the republican nomination. Well, that's fair, but his stance on the preliminary issue indicates that he has no confidence in the man he made president to carry out his progressive policy. The refusal of Col. Roosevelt to support either Mr. Taft or Mr. La Follette for the nomination, is a severe blow to the administration, it is equal to an indorsement of Senator La Follette. The LEADER never believed that Col.
Roosevelt would openly support La Follette against the man he made president, but he has done the next thing to it. President Taft deceived Col. Roosevelt and the Colonel feels it deeply.

It is quite amusing to note how glamorously the old trust-corruption papers mention the cause of one Robert J. Gamble. A few of them are forced to support him through political considerations and pap, but none of them seem to relish the dose. It is not to be wondered at because Gamble has betrayed both sides. The progressives will have nothing to do with him, and we can't imagine any follower of Senator Kittredge shouting for Gamble who was kicked out of the party by Senator Kittredge and his cohorts. An old liner who followed Senator Kittredge to victory and defeat can't support Gamble unless he forgets his political identity.

Judge Carpenter of Lemmon, wants to go to congress from the third district or at least the papers so state.
E. W. Martin and Dr. Batte are already in the field. There is no room for a third candidate, unless that third candidate wants to make the nomination of E. W. Martin as benevolent. Martin is the Taft-Carpenter candidate, Dr. Batte is an old and out progressive, and as Judge Carpenter claims to be a progressives, when show doubts exist at the primary? Martin has the Homeland behind him. Our present indication is strong following in favor of the district. One strong candidate has but two weeks

It would seem after all that Loomis S. Cull is not going to give up his $3,000 land office job for a free for all race for the governorship, and Mr.
Cull is very sensible. He will be out of the race entirely before the primaries. He was, no doubt, induced to surrender his job in order to help Gamble but he, like thousands of others, is convinced that all the political salt-peter in the state can't save handsome Bob, because Handsome Robert's political record is a good deal like the trail of a snake which the good old darkey said was so crooked that he couldn't tell whether it was going south or coming back.

Andrew Carnegie says twenty-one men, all born poor, have made the world what it is today. Rich titled men have contributed nothing to world progress and never will. Seven of the twenty-one world boomers were Scotchmen, and he don't include himself after giving $225,000,000 for libraries and other benefactions.

The Chinese are making a splendid effort to drive out the Manchu oppressors and establish a republic, and it now seems that a republic is certain in the end, no matter how much blood and treasure is expended in the effort. The American republic was born after eight years of strife.

Van Osdel's Historical Landmarks.

Hon. A. L. Van Osdel kindly favored the LEADER with a copy of his book recently published, entitled "Historic Landmarks of the Northwest."

This neatly bound volume contains between the covers a very interesting record of pioneer days in the northwest, and we do not believe any other publication contains so much real history of the opening and development of the great northwest. The author spent many years collecting and compiling the records of men who conquered half a continent from the red men who fought foot by foot to drive back civilization.

The book contains many illustrations of historic places and of forts and trading posts that have long ago passed into history, even the numerous military posts on the Missouri river are but a memory, beginning with Fort Randall and ending at Fort Benton, the head of navigation on the Missouri river.

It is a book of 400 pages and contains much of the early history of what is now the states of North and South Dakota, Montana and Minnesota, and many of the men who made history in that region since 1840, were friends of the author and gave him much historical data not within reach of other historical writers, and some of the famous characters were old men when Mr. Van Osdel met them at the close of the civil war.

Mr. Van Osdel's own portrait should have graced the opening page of the book, because thousands would have liked to see the picture of the man whose history will be read with deep interest in the days to come when even the pioneers of the present age have passed to a glorious reward.

A copy of Van Osdel's "Historical Landmarks" should be in every school library in the state and is worthy of a place in every home where history is appreciated.

The Eastern Star had its annual election of officers last Monday night with the following result: Worthy Matron, Marjorie Clark; Worthy Patron, Judge Gifford; Associate Matron, Mrs. Seely; Secretary, Mrs. Will Cloud; Treasurer, Mrs. Fowler; Conductress, Nellie Brenner; Associate Conductress, Ethel Menor.

Coughing at Night.

Means loss of sleep which is bad for everyone. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops the cough at once, relieves the tickling and dryness in the throat and heals the inflamed membranes. Prevents a cold developing into bronchitis or pneumonia.
Keep always in the house. Refuse substitutes.

Santa Claus

won't know where to do his shopping unless you tell him you can supply many of his needs.

Get wise, Mr. Merchant, advertise in this paper NOW and tell him of your stock of goods.

CORRESPONDENCE

Inwood.

Nov. 27, 1911.
Knut, Tom and Sam Ulrickson and Miss Inga Ulrickson auted up to L.
Sivesind's Wednesday, Nov. 22nd, to help their mother, Mrs. T. Ulrickson, celebrate her 87th birthday.

Charley Skovgaard and family visited with relatives in Inwood over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hatcher are back from Idaho, and Mr. Hatcher purchased the G. M. Anderson property and will take possession right away.

Miss Mabel Iverson visited with her sister Miss Alta, at Cedar Falls, a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Anderson and daughter Mae, visited with Gust Moen and family at Fairview, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skiewis visited with Sioux City relatives last week.

Misses Johanna and Mabelle Johnson were Sioux Falls visitors last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simmons visited with Hawarden friends a few days last week.

Most of the people got through corn picking last week.

Mrs. C. T. Holstenson called on Mrs. Sivesind Sunday.

John Tweed and family returned home from Montana where they went three months ago.

Salmer Berge from Augustana college, Sundayed at home.

Hans Helgerson and Mrs. Lauritz Helgerson returned to Inwood Sunday night from Oslo, Texas, and Lauritz and Morgan will come with cars later in the week. They are welcome back to Inwood.

Miss Irene Anderson who is a student at Augustana College, is sick in bed with the grip but we hope for her speedy recovery so she can take up her work again.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Madland, a baby boy, Sunday.

Moe.

Nov. 26, 1911.

The weather is cool and the corn husking will soon be finished.

John Titland, the mighty blacksmith, has been busy going out east.
Wonder what he is about?

Hans Hanson was in town Saturday.

Julia Brynjulson is staying at Mr.
Paulson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Moen and family and Mrs. Erickson and daughter Palma, from Iowa, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. U. Ulrickson.

John Eneboe went out south Sunday afternoon. Wonder if Miss was at home.

Ladies Aid Society meets with Mrs.
Holsather, Dec. 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Haugen are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy.

Sivert Skorheim took supper with Miss B. last Sunday evening.

Sam Ulrickson went to Rochester, Wednesday to consult a doctor.

Miss Mabel Moen accompanied by Miss Adella Wienke were in Canton Friday.

Jacob Eneboe returned from Mitchell Thursday.

Even Fossum had the corn stalk threshers Thursday and Friday.

There was no school in District 13 Thursday and Friday on account of teachers' examination.

Mrs. Peter Thomdsgaard visited with Mrs. Edward Fossum Saturday.

have a swell time. Arriving at the place, the cakes and speeches were unloaded from the numerous carriages, and all made a dash for the house, the speakers making a noise that sounded like a feed printer. When the door was at last reached the jolly mob in giving vent to their feelings, made a noise that was enough to wake one from the dead. When the lady of the house was able to reach the door she found a tough looking bunch, and thinking them a bunch of tramps, she refused admittance.
The young folks turned their backs to the door and their noses to the storm and retraced their way to the original meeting place, where the cake and speeches were all consumed in merry glee.

John spent Sunday at home? ??
Since the business at the Moe store has been too large for Mr. Dahle and his son to handle, a new clerk has been engaged. Mr. Dahle was very fortunate in getting a young man of mean experience, Oscar Flatmark.
The young man has been working for Ador Kylling for the three last years, and has won many friends there.

The Luther League will give one of their excellent Christmas programs in Trinity church this year. Watch for particulars later.

The Ladies Aid met at the Ole Eldness place last Thursday.

Miss Ellen Hanson was delightfully surprised last Friday night by some forty young people on the occasion of her birthday. The one problem that presented itself during the evening was to find out how old Miss Ellen was. The young people stayed until a late hour and a fine time was enjoyed by all.

Adolph Larson arrived at the Moe store Monday in a disturbed state of mind. He made a dash for the telephone in the vain endeavor of trying to speak to Tina, but he discovered to his dismay that she had gone on a week's vacation to Canton, and that he could not speak to her. Cheer up, Adolph, the worst is yet to come.

Ruth Dahle and a number of school friends made a visit via the auto route at Moe Sunday.

H. P. Hanson hauled hogs to Hudson last week.

Lars Haugen and Edwin Narum had a lively experience in Canton last Thursday. The particulars of the run-away will, no doubt, be found in another part of this paper.

Elias Nygaard will leave Beresford Saturday for Norway, where he intends to stay indefinitely.

Ole Nordlie has been hauling sand from Canton the past week, which is to be used for the new Rice school house. Mr. Nordlie also expects to put a new cement floor in his big barn.

Don't forget the meetings of the Champion literary society in the Falde school house every Wednesday night.
They are having splendid programs.

The Miss "Johnny off the Spot" of Fairview has made many grievous mistakes in the annals of her brief career. If the dear little Johnny would not be so eager for news she would succeed a great deal better. If said correspondent would pay a little less attention to foreign matters and stay at home once in a while, she would be able to hear the chug-chug of the Moe Winton, and if she would not be so very eager to get news she would not make such a grievous mistake as to state that the honorable blacksmith of Moe had moved to Fairview.

John Titland has not, and does not intend, as far as I know, to remove to Fairview.

Nels Larson has sold one of his deer to Mr. Stein of Canton. The people of Canton can look forward to a taste of venison in the near future.

Miss Louise Jensvold and her friend attended the concert at the Kennedy opera house in Canton Friday night.

Lost; strayed or stolen—a corn husker, Finder please return to Hans Bogren, and no questions will be asked.

The male choir have begun to practice songs for Christmas.

The Moe store people have been making several important changes in the store making ready for their new stock of Holiday goods.

P. S. Paulson, Ulrick Ulrickson, and Ole Nordlie made a new survey of the Land's church graveyard the first of the week. They are putting in new concrete corner posts.

South Lynn.

Nov. 28, 1911.

Fred Fosha, who owns the J. T.
Pelley homestead in South Lynn, has as fine a bunch of O. I. C. porkers as one would care to own. He shipped several recently to hog fanciers in different parts of the state.

Mrs. Jesse Hicks and Miss Flory were callers at the Carl Wiggins home recently.

We learn that Jas. Hattiestad, a former Lynn township man, and his esteemed wife are now located at Canton, Minnesota. Mr. Hattiestad is again in the newspaper business.

F. A. Kuhns and wife were eastbound passengers Monday. They will visit friends at Lone Rock, Wisconsin, returning via Minneapolis where they will spend a week with relatives and viewing the sights of the twin cities.

Miss Hicks returned to her duties as teacher in No. 30 on Monday, after a two weeks vacation.

We were glad to meet Chas. Voges of Big Timber, Montana, who has just completed his visit in Lynn and returned to his home. His son is attending school in Canton.

George Clark and wife and baby Carrol of Worthing were week end visitors at R. E. Wood's.

Thanksgiving day will be a thing of the past when the LEADER comes out so it is rather late to remind any but ourselves that we have blessings innumerable to be thankful for. We will eat our dinner as is usual with us along with a score of relatives and are thankful that we are spared to enjoy it.

F. P. Norton and family were Sunday guests at the Adolph Mattison home.

Pleasant View.

Nov. 28, 1911.

Oh, for one of those nice warm days we had last July.

Mr. and Mrs. DeNewer and daughter Florene and Mrs. Tom Rood drove out from Canton and were guests at the Hicks home one evening recently.

Mrs. Theo. Thompson has returned

Grand Valley.

Nov. 28, 1911.

Ole Lien and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Reier Reierson were Sunday guests at M. O. Mickelson's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ovre and Mrs.
Hans Ovre and children visited with Mr. Theodore Nelson last Sunday.

The young folks from Grand Valley attended the dance at Sonviger's last Saturday evening and from reports we should judge they all had "just a lovely time."

Ole H. Strand has rented his fine farm to George Ulrickson for the coming year and Ole is now figuring on an extended trip to Norway next summer.

E. E. Osvoeg and son Dan called on Grand Valley friends Sunday.

Hon. and Mrs. Sander Brynjulson were week end visitors near Lennox with their daughter, Mrs. Fodness, and at Ole Nelson's. They were out on important business as well as pleasure.

Theo. Halla took supper at Syvert-son's last Saturday.

B. O. Torberson marketed a load of fat porkers in Canton last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hanson visited with friends and relatives in South Lynn last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Syvertson and daughter Mamie were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Helvig of Highland.

Misses Esther and Alpha Peterson of Canton and Corine Strand visited with Lilly Kleppe one day this week.

Paul Kleppe and family Sundayed with John Erickson and family of Highland Center.

Peter Benson and Harold Haanes are helping Knud Thorson, who lives on the old Van Houton place, and finish corn picking this week, but they do not expect to break the record made by that young man from Iowa, who picked and cribbed 235 bushels in 10 hours.

John Millie was a renewal subscriber this week and also subscribed for the LEADER to be sent to his niece in Bergen, Norway.

Ness-Noetlich Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Noetlich of Lynn township, announce the marriage of their daughter Miss Lillian Frances to Mr. Albert O. Ness on Wednesday November 29, 1911.
