A CARD.
TO THE LOVERS OF A GOOD ROAD OR TRACK HORSE
The celebrated Trotting Gelding,
BROWN DICK
to be sold to the highest bidder.
The above named Horse was recently purchased by a gentleman to make up a team to clip the road; but as Dick proved entirely too fast and not gaited like his other horse, he has concluded to sell him at public auction, on the 12th day of June, at 1 o'clock P. M., at the Merchants' Exchange, 111 Broadway; thus affording all lovers of a good and fast horse a good chance to purchase.
For particulars of Dick, if any be needed more than his wonderful turf record, inquire of his late owners, J. D. McMann and D. Smith, Hunter's Point, L. I. Dick was never in better condition than at present, and it is believed that he will train down to trot a mile so quick as to astonish the world.
Brown Dick won his race against the late Geo. M. Patchen on the Centreville course, time 2:27, 2:25¼ and 2:28, and more recently trotted a mile to a wagon in 2:25. As Dick is very reliable, he would be a grand horse to ship abroad to astonish some of the crowned heads of Europe, who do not know what it is to see a large horse of his splendid proportions trotting faster than some racers can be made to run.
Young gentlemen who have plenty of money, and who want to be certain of passing their man when they pull out on the road, should not let this only opportunity slip to secure one of the pleasantest roadsters and the greatest wonder of the age in horse flesh. The horse can be seen up to the morning of the sale at Mr. D. Mace's stables, Forty-eighth street and Broadway. F. WILDER.
