Arrest of An Alleged Counterfeiter.

HE MAKES A DESPERATE EFFORT TO ESCAPE—SPURIOUS MONEY FOUND IN HIS POSSESSION.

On Wednesday evening Captain Wardlow, of the First precinct, received information that Michael Harnet, better known as "Desperate Mike," a man thirty-five years of age, was in the lower part of the city, having in his possession a quantity of counterfeit money, which he intended to put in circulation. Captain Wardlow accordingly took with him officers Burns and Ellis, of his force, and started out in pursuit of Harnet, whom they soon found, on the corner of South and Whitehall streets. He was arrested, and made a desperate effort to escape, but failed. On the way to the station house the prisoner threw a roll of bills to the pavement, and as Captain Wardlow was in the act of picking them up a number of Harnet's confederates rushed upon him, and after knocking him down kicked him several times, their object being to secure the bills thrown away by the accused; but they failed in their purpose. After reaching the station house and searching Harnet it was found he had eleven counterfeit two dollar bills, purporting to be genuine issues of the Corn Exchange Bank of this city, four counterfeit $2 bills on the Union Bank of Albany, this State, and a spurious $3 bill on the Jefferson County Bank, at Watertown, N. Y.

It is charged that the accused had these worthless notes in his possession with the felonious intent to utter them and to cheat and defraud.

Harnet, who says he is a laborer, was taken before Justice Hogan and committed to the Tombs for trial in default of $1,000 bail.

Personal Intelligence.

Governor Fenton has conferred upon Quartermaster George W. Ford the title of brevet major for long and faithful service in the Quartermaster's Department. Major Ford joined the army early in the spring of 1861, passing through the memorable peninsula campaign, and continued with it till the collapse of the rebellion in front of Petersburg. No more faithful and competent officer than Major Ford could be found in the glorious old sixth corps. We congratulate him on his well deserved promotion.

Baron Bennet, of the Swedish Legation, has arrived at the Clarendon Hotel.

Baron Higham is at the St. Denis Hotel.

The Baton Rouge (La.) Advocate gives the following particulars respecting their oldest citizen:—Mrs. Mary Sanchez, of this city, has completed her one hundred and third year, and is now as comparatively strong, hearty old lady. She has never worn spectacles, and her eyesight is yet strong and sufficient to enable her to sew and thread her needle. She was born at Galvestown, on the Bayou Manchac, in this parish, and has in the long experience of her life lived under the flags of Spain, Great Britain, France, the confederacy and the United States, without quitting the confines of her native parish. Mrs. Sanchez is of the substantial class of Spanish, whose descendents yet form a proportion of our population.

The Columbus (Ga.) Sun of a late date prints the following items:—

LIEUTENANT GENERAL J. B. GORDON.—We had hoped that this distinguished, well-beloved leader of a corps in the late Confederate army would permanently locate in our city; but we learn that he intends removing to Brunswick, where he will engage in the lumber trade.

GENERAL ROBERT TOOMBS.—A gentleman from this city has received a letter from this distinguished Georgian, dated Havana, Cuba, December 22. The General was enjoying fine health. He had been joined by his wife a few days previous. We understand that they have abundant means, having exported and sold considerable cotton.

The late Captain Gronow has left a wife and four infant children wholly unprovided for. Some friends in Paris are endeavoring to get up a purse in aid of the family.

The King of Denmark is confined to his bed by indisposition.

Sir Francis T. Baring has been raised to the British peerage with the title of Lord Northbrook.

Monsignore De Merode is still occupying his post at the Vatican Palace, and maintains his habitual intercourse with His Holiness.

Sir H. Storks, the new Governor of Jamaica, sailed from Southampton December 18 for his destination.

The Liverpool Courier of the 18th of December says:—The steamer City of Limerick is said to have taken out to New York a Leeds cashier, named Fennie, who had embezzled a large sum of money belonging to his employers, Messrs. Edward Taylor & Son, cloth dressers.
