SITUATIONS WANTED—MALES.

WANTED—TO ENGAGE IN BUSINESS IN NEW YORK, Boston, or any other place—I am not, however, one of those happy individuals where salary is no object. I have fought for nothing (in the front) for over three years, and I don't propose to work for nothing any more. I am not willing to ever fight again for anything, but will work for money. I am a native of South Carolina; have travelled on business in Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana; have lived in New Orleans for several years; have had twelve years' experience in the dry goods business, and am at this time engaged as salesman in one of the largest and oldest established jobbing houses in New Orleans, but would prefer doing better. I have quite a number of friends in the South, and think that I can sell goods any where any other man can sell them. I want an opportunity of making my services equal to capital. Any respectable parties wishing to establish a business in New Orleans, or extend their trade in the South, can secure my services by making it to my interest, and I will make it profitable to them. Any one wishing to confer with me can ascertain who and what I am, &c., by addressing A. B. C., New Orleans lock box 837.
