MORE THAN THIRTY THOUSAND
UNION SOLDIERS PERISHED

REBEL PRISONS
Rather than take the oath of allegiance to

JUST PUBLISHED,
MARYRIA;
OR
ANDERSONVILLE PRISON.
BY LIEUT. COL. A. C. HAMLIN,
Late Medical Inspector United States Army.

This startling work, which was written by a medical officer of the highest rank in the U. S. Army, is a scientific exposé of the prison system of the rebels, and shows that more than thirty thousand of our brave men were destroyed by the unparalleled barbarity of Jeff Davis and the Breckinridge faction at Richmond.

The stockade is fully described, with comparisons of ratio of density, &c.; the mortality compared with the losses of foreign armies, prisons and hospitals; the alimentation compared with dietaries of Dartmoor and other prisons, hospitals, &c.; the legal right of death over the captive reviewed, with the views of the ablest writers; review of the social and psychical causes that have led to the degeneration of the white race in the South, and the consequent perversity and barbarity, &c.

Illustrated with nineteen fine engravings and maps, taken from actual surveys and drawings on the spot, or exact copies of rebel photographs in possession of the author.
