SPECIAL NOTICES.

AT A MEETING OF THE UNDERSIGNED CITIZENS of Galveston, held at the Metropolitan Hotel in the city of New York on the evening of August 26, to take into consideration the best means to be adopted for the purpose of raising funds to be sent to the Howard Association at Galveston, Texas, Horace Cone, Esq. was called to the chair, and W. M. Baker was appointed Secretary. After a general discussion of the subject under consideration, the following memorial to the citizens of New York was agreed upon, and the Secretary requested to ask its publication in the newspapers of this city:—

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW YORK:—

There is great suffering in the city of Galveston. That scourge of the South yellow fever, has already made awful ravages among the citizens of the coast towns of Texas, and in Galveston its type has been most malignant and fatal. There are thousands who have never before resided in the South who are liable to be prostrated with the disease, and hundreds who now languish upon beds of sickness, having already been stricken down. Money is necessary to alleviate suffering and prevent death. The Howard Association has exhausted the funds already subscribed and is anxiously awaiting assistance from those who are yet willing to contribute. The epidemic has not and is not abating, and we earnestly invoke the pecuniary aid of the citizens of the great business emporium of the country.

The Howard Association of Galveston is composed of some of the first citizens of that city and was organized more than twenty years ago. Its members have devoted themselves during the whole of that time, whenever epidemics prevailed, to the alleviation of the suffering citizens, and at this particular time are sadly in want of funds to carry out the philanthropic objects of the association. There cannot be any reasonable hope that the disease now prevailing in Galveston will entirely abate before the middle or last of November, and whatever may be contributed by the citizens of New York for the Howard Association will be faithfully expended for the purposes for which it is given.

T. H. McMahan, B. R. Davis, J. L. McKeen, H. Blum, W. P. Quigg, H. Rosenberg, S. R. Smith, J. Woodward, W. M. Baker, George Schrader, N. Arnold, M. Arnold, F. Harff, S. Cohn, A. Greenleave, F. Burkhardt, V. Bautlard, Frank Lubbock, Frank Bell, A. Kery, Myer N. Kahn, G. Blum, Horace Cone, and others.

The following houses are authorized to receive subscriptions for the Galveston Howard Association and see them properly forwarded:—

Spofford, Tileston & Co.; Norton, Slaughter & Co.; C. H. Mallory & Co., Josiah Macy's Sons, George E. Biddle & Co., Gardner, Bacon & Co.; Williams & Guion.
