Miss Dora Evenson, a teacher in western Lincoln county came down on Saturday to attend the teacher's meeting and incidentally do a little shopping.

Mrs. C. F. Whitmore was the hostess Tuesday afternoon. Another of those delightful social functions for which Canton society is famous was the occasion.

Miss Stouss, principle of the Harrisburg schools, was in attendance at the teachers' meeting on Saturday, remaining over Sunday as a guest of Miss Naoma Keller.

Three of Hudson's most popular young men, Carl Moe, Louie Dokken and the famous "Cy" Pargins came up for the dance last Thursday evening. Anticipation of their coming ran high with some of the Canton maidens.

Miss Marjorie Clark is traveling in the interest of Black Beaver, making dates and arranging details that belong to an advance agent, which she really is. She is meeting with best of success and has landed everything she has gone after. We who know Marjorie are not surprised. The work is congenial to her and that means nearly everything.

We will have all the court news in next week's LEADER.

Frank Albaugh returned the first of the week from a visit to Slayton, Minn.

The annual Freshman party was held on Monday evening and the forty odd members of the class did themselves proud in the culinary art, taking for granted that the bounteous spread was the work of their own hands. We are not in a position to testify as to that but reports agree 'twas a very successful effort both in point of repast and entertainment. The members of the faculty who held the distinction of being guests of honor were Supt. Graham and Miss Padner, both favorites of the class and instructors of ability.

Canton theatre goers will be pleased with the production of "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie" which will appear at the Kennedy Opera House on Wednesday night, Nov. 26 by the special arrangement of Manager Campbell. This is an accurate picture of southern home life and hospitality without a dull, uninteresting moment from start to finish. It is a pure love story. Not a murder committed nor a shot fired, nor a single melodramatic situation. It will make you happier because it is the sweetest story ever told of "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie".

How times have changed since the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock! Their sail-ship took a long, long time to cross the seas. Now, within ONE WEEK, the choicest fabrics of Europe can reach our stores. In our store you can find articles from every country in the world. And as soon as they appear we shortly have them on sale. Are you not thankful to have such a store in your city?

Truly a season of Thanksgiving
