NAVY YARD, NEW YORK, APRIL 17, 1868.—AT A meeting of the shipwrights of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, held this 12 M., John Carpenter was chosen chairman, and A. J. Kemble, Wm. Reed and James J. Snow appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the meeting in regard to the death of Paul W. Sherman; they reported the following, which were adopted:—

Whereas it has been permitted by an all wise Providence to remove from our midst our brother, Paul W. Sherman, by his death we are called to mourn the loss of one who was a friend to humanity, an ornament to society, a good father, a loving husband and a faithful friend; therefore be it

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved widow and orphan child our heartfelt sympathies, in this great and sore trial, praying that God, who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, may enfold them with that consolation which cannot be given by the feeble utterance of man, but must emanate from Him who has promised to console the weeping and disconsolate ones and comfort them in their affliction.

Resolved, That, as a mark of respect, we, the shipwrights of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, do meet at his late residence, and accompany the deceased to the church where the funeral obsequies are to take place.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased.
