This is all we know.

HIT THE HAY.

Successful Everywhere.

People everywhere are talking of the quick and fine results Foley Kidney Pills give in backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles. You can not take them into your system without good results. That is because Foley Kidney Pills give to the kidneys and bladder just what nature calls for to heal these weakened and inactive organs.

South Lynn.

Feb. 25, 1914.
The friends of Miss Minnie Brockman gave her a miscellaneous shower at the home of P. J. Lukken Friday evening.

Anna Neotlich underwent a successful operation for appendicitis at Sioux Falls last week. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson took Mrs. E. Jackson and Mrs. Opsal with them and drove up to make the Schneiderman's visit Saturday. The Schneiderman's left for their new home in Minnesota the first of this week.

Miss Anna Todd was a midweek visitor at the Selom home.

We are glad to note that the little daughter of Fred James is improving in health.

Mrs. Albert Ness went to Sioux Falls Saturday to see her sister Miss Anna Neotlich who is in the hospital there.

John Hanson is shelling corn for Mr. Nelson today.

Gilbert Thompson is enjoying a visit from his brothers Theodore and Clarence, both of Roundup, Montana.

Colds, constipation and headache are the three common afflictions and relieving the constipation helps the cold and stops the headache. Use Foley Cathartic Tablets because they are very prompt and thoroughly cleansing, with absolutely no unpleasant effects. A whole bottle full for 25 cents.

Feb. 25, 1914.
The Pleasant View Aid Society meets with Mrs. Ella DeNewer the 5th of March.

Mrs. Hurst left for Kansas last Saturday. She has spent several months with her daughter and family Mrs. S. S. Madning.

A very enjoyable time is reported by all who were fortunate enough to be present at the Belgium home last Friday night. Dancing was the main feature of the occasion.

Christ Torberson's drove out to Lukken's Friday night to help "show" Minnie Brockman who is to be married soon. Of course they had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson visited with John Warren and family Monday evening.

Mrs. Mabel Eiersen is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Wallquist this week.

George Ulrikson's baby has been very sick but the doctor thinks he is much improved at this writing.

Harry Artz was in the neighborhood the first of the week. Mrs. Artz was still in Worthing visiting her mother and Marvin was taking care of their new home during Harry's absence.

The Pleasant View Aid met with Mrs. Anthon Thompson last Thursday and as that was the last time Mrs. Torberson would meet with them as a resident member Mrs. Penniston president of the society, in a few well chosen words presented Beulah with an aluminum kettle as a token of love and remembrance and also to show their appreciation of the work she has done while a member.

Mrs. Torberson and daughter Belle came out from Canton Sunday to help prepare the lunch for the sale on Monday. On account of the cold weather the sale was not very well attended and prices were not as good as they should have been.

We are glad to relate that Mr. Thinglum is now able to be around among his friends again after his recent stroke of illness.

Ed Selom and Harry Artz were Tuesday afternoon visitors at Hanson's.

Theodore Thompson from Roundup, Montana, is back for a few days visit with friends and relatives.

About 24 of Christ Torberson's friends met at his home to give him a farewell and a merry send off to his new home near Scotland.

John Warner is having his cattle and horses inspected preparatory to leaving for Mott, N. Dak.

Christ Torberson is loading his box car and stock car today. The cars leave for Scotland to-night. Martin Buckenberg and Harry Koort start tomorrow morning with two wagon loads and Mr. and Mrs. Torberson start for their new home at the same time in their automobile.

County Auditor T. O. Torberson came out from Canton Monday to attend his brother's sale

"Little Women", Louisa M. Alcott's famous story, is a charming story of 40 years ago, and which is today as fresh and as wholesome as when first written. An excellent cast has been secured to portray Meg, Jo, Beth, Fannie, Mr. and Mrs. March, the Professor, Aunt March, grumbling Hannah and all the old favorites contained within the covers of the book. Kennedy Opera House, Friday night, Feb. 27.

The annual meeting of the rural mail carriers was held in Canton on Monday, in the I. O. O. F. Hall. The officers for the Lincoln County association for the ensuing year are as follows: President, H. C. Carpenter of Hudson; vice president, F. P. Robinson of Harrisburg; secretary and treasurer, Fred Sutherland of Lennox; the delegates selected to attend the state meeting to be held in Hudson are Norman Rogers of Canton and Fred Sutherland of Lennox, with A. Arnold and G. E. Pulver of Canton as alternates.

The W. R. C. and Post served an oyster supper at their hall on Saturday evening which netted them something over fifteen dollars which will be used toward furnishing the hall.

The program which followed the supper was well rendered and much appreciated by all present. Dept. Post Commander Jolley of Vermillion and Dept. President Mrs. Nellie Chapman of Alexandria were in attendance and each gave an interesting address touching upon the work of the orders and the needs along patriotic lines. Following is the program as rendered, Mrs. F. C. Wiggin acting as chairman:

Notice.

Having successfully passed the examination of the South Dakota State Board of Examiners at their examination held in Pierre last month and received a license to practice medicine in South Dakota, I beg to announce that beginning March 1, 1914, I shall be available for consultation and shall take a few selected cases. Have practiced among the insane for fourteen and a half years, during which time I have treated many thousands of cases of disease of all kinds. Will not open an office in town at present, but may be seen at the Indian Asylum or called by telephone, No. 47.

35-7 Dr. H. R. HUMMER.

Notice of Teachers' Examination for First Grade and State Certificates.

The regular examination for First Grade and State Certificates will be held in the court room at Canton Feb. 26-28 beginning at eight o'clock each day. The questions in Didactics will be based upon the Reading Circle Book, "The Teacher and the School." The questions in Pedagogy will be based in part upon "The Child" or upon "Psychology as Applied to Education" as the one writing prefers, a choice of only one of these books being allowed.

Dilla E. Wimple, Co. Supt.

Canton Township Caucus.

A caucus will be held at the Town Hall, Canton Township, on Saturday, Feb. 28th, 1914 at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating one Supervisor, one Clerk, one Treasurer, one Assessor, one Justice of the Peace and one Constable.

Henry M. Hanson, Twp. Clerk.

LaGrappe Leaves Its Victims Prostrate.

Some victims of lagrippe never fully recover the health of the lungs, and persistent coughing is weakening. The quick action of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound makes it valuable in severe lagrippe coughs. F. G. Prevo, Bedford, Ind., writes: "LaGrappe left me with a severe cough that Foley's Honey and Tar cured and I am back to my normal weight."
