MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, JAN. 8, 1869.—Charles M. Rogers, about 7 o'clock A. M. on the day before New Year's, was murdered in front of his house in East Twelfth street, between University place and Fifth avenue. Two men came through said street from Fifth avenue towards University place and approached him. One of them actively participated in his murder and the other only passively. If the latter person will present himself he shall receive from me a reward of $1,000 and from the District Attorney a guarantee against prosecution. If the person who addressed to "James Logan, City," an envelope that was found in the pocket torn from the murdered man will make himself known (proving his identity by writing from dictation), he shall receive a similar reward from me of $1,000, and shall be treated as confidentially as he may desire to be by the District Attorney. If any person saw a man, about 7 o'clock of the morning in question, running bareheaded through Twelfth street towards Second avenue, and if any person in shirt sleeves; or if any person supplied any man that morning with a hat, size 7¼, or then gave assistance to any man who had a fresh cut on left hand, such person is earnestly requested to communicate information to the District Attorney, although it may seem to such person trivial, and if in the opinion of that official it is link information such person will receive a suitable reward from me. If any person knows the whereabouts of James Logan, 26 years old, 5 feet 4½ inches high, weight about 120 pounds, having figure 2 and letters "J. L." over figure 6 (and poorly executed, upon his left arm in India ink, having florid complexion, gray eyes, dark brown hair, with a small round scar over right eye; also a scar on his forehead over left eye, and who was discharged from State Prison Oct. 14, 1868, and will give information which results in the arrest of said described James Logan, such person shall be paid by me a reward of $2,500. Although the ordinances limit me to offering $500, and in consequence of odd restrictions in the tax levy, I cannot, without legislation, officially obtain the money for the above rewards, I will become personally responsible for each of them and take the risk of the necessary legislation. Thus no one need fear any quibble about the money. A. OAKEY HALL, Mayor. Approved, SAMUEL B. GARVIN, District Attorney.
