SPECIAL NOTICES.

A CARD. Office of Henry H. Leeds & Miner, Auctioneers, 96 Chambers and 7½ Reade streets, New York, June 18, 1869.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK DAILY NEWS:—

SIR—Our attention has been called to two articles in your newspaper, one in the issue of the 11th of June, instant, in the daily news column, headed "The Alleged Swindling Operations of Leeds & Miner and the Adams Express Company," and the other in the issue of the 14th instant, in the same column, headed "The Bogus Express Sale," referring to the sale of unclaimed packages made by us on the 7th instant by order of the Adams Express Company.

Both of the articles in question contain charges and insinuations highly offensive and calculated to injure us in our business as auctioneers, in which we have been engaged in this city for over twenty years, and which are without foundation in fact.

As we know of no motive which could induce you willfully to misrepresent or injure us, we take this method of calling your attention to the articles in question and of explaining the facts, in the expectation that you will cheerfully give to this letter the same publicity which has been given, we doubt not, through inadvertence, to the defamatory articles above mentioned.

Some time prior to the 7th of June we were employed by the Adams Express Company to sell for their account a quantity of unclaimed packages remaining in their hands as we had done on several previous occasions.

We accordingly advertised the sale for the 7th day of June, instant.

On Saturday, the 5th day of June, the packages to be sold were delivered at our store by the Adams Express Company wagons between the hours of 12 noon and 6 o'clock in the evening.

These packages, to the number altogether of 504, were received too late to be catalogued that evening.

The smaller packages were contained in the large iron bound trunks of the express company, which remained unopened under seal until Sunday morning.

On Sunday, the 6th inst., the packages were arranged for the sale, which was to take place on the following morning, those contained in the trunks being taken out and all the packages numbered and catalogued.

No package was opened or its contents examined, but all the packages were arranged in order according to numbers for convenience at the sale, six of our clerks being present and assisting.

On Monday morning the sale commenced at half-past 10 o'clock, and continued without intermission till all the packages were sold.

It was distinctly stated to the persons present, both before the commencement of the sale and frequently during the sale that these packages were unclaimed property, sold by order of the Adams Express Company, and that the contents were unknown, and that they were to be sold as they were, contents unknown and without recourse, in accordance with the instructions received by us from the Adams Express Company.

The greater portion of the packages embraced in the sale were paid for and removed by the purchasers on the day of sale, and all but a very few of those left were removed on the two following days.

The highest price paid for any one package included in the sale was $8 85, while the majority of the packages brought from than $3 each, the whole 504 packages together realizing $717 43 gross.

The sale in question was conducted in the same manner precisely as we have been in the habit for years of making sales of unclaimed packages for account of different express and transportation companies.

No package was opened or its contents examined from the time of its receipt by us to the time of its delivery to the purchaser.

The buyer of each package had as much knowledge and information as to its contents before the purchase as our selves.

The facts being as above stated, and as we are prepared to prove by the testimony of every one in our employ who had anything to do with the packages in question, we find it hard to conceive how any imputation of fraud, or swindling, or unfair dealing of any kind can be applied to us.

The statement in the closing paragraph of the article in the issue of the 14th inst. in respect to an alleged sale three years ago of a number of new pictures, washed in coffee water and then painted off as old masters, is utterly false, and in any possible person as ridiculous as it is false. Your obedient servants, HENRY H. LEEDS & MINER.

AT A MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF the Sixpenny Savings Bank, held at their banking rooms, Astor place, June 17, the following preamble and resolution were adopted:—
