22D WARD.—A LARGE MEETING OF THE O'GORMAN Club of the Twenty-second ward was held on Friday evening, Sept. 17, at their old rooms, 209 West Forty-first street. The following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year:—William O'Gorman, President; Henry Sherlock, Vice President; John Ryan, Secretary; James Bourke, Treasurer; J. W. Stewart, Sergeant-at-Arms. This club controls the lower districts of the ward, and is determined to take a bold stand this fall. From indications at the meeting William Joyce, a very popular man, is the choice for Alderman, he having for three successive terms been elected Councilman, and was elected Supervisor, but never got his seat in that body. On each occasion Mr. Joyce ran ahead of his ticket. On motion, resolved that this club meet every Friday evening until after the December election.
