The steel girders for the Klondyke bridge are on the sidetracks and will soon be moved to the bridge to be erected in place.

Ralph Ellingson, for some time past a taxi driver in Sioux City, came from the bustling city Friday for visit with his parents.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alkens will be pleased to learn that a baby boy put in his appearance to gladden their home last week.

George Brynjulson of Bergen, North Dakota, brother of Hans and Sander of this locality, left May last for Norway, to pay their country a visit.

The commercial class of the college played the high school team a game of ball Monday and the college team was victorious by a score of 5 to 0.

Carl Benz leaves Friday for Yankton to take part in the State Declaratory Contest. All the best wishes of Carl's many friends go with him.

Almer Helgeson drove up from Sioux City Sunday in his new Chalmers "six" and to say the least, it is one of the "classiest" cars in Canton.

Carl Wiggin is still pushing the Ford car to the front when it comes to sales. He has just recently closed the sale of 50 cars and has more sales in sight.

Millard Kennedy came home from Sioux City Monday where he visited with his mother over Sunday. Mrs. Kennedy is not quite as well as the family would have her.

Floyd Millman of Morrilton is in Canton on business this week. Floyd tells us that the newspaper business is booming in the Hills country and that his mother is enjoying good health.

Col. McDermott has already started to get busy for the concessions and attractions for the race meet. "Mac" is a good man for the place and in his position as secretary of the Race Meet Association, success as far as he is concerned is assured.

A letter from Mrs. Nash to Canton friends tells that she does not expect to visit here this summer but instead will spend her time on the coast which will soon be the home of all her children. The Nash family have hosts of friends here and all old timers feel they always belong to us.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Reid are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl that came to make glad their hearts. Grandpa Lewis is stepping high, wide and handsome and swears that there is not a greater child in all this wide world for the little stranger who has come to stay.

County Auditor, Theo. Torberson, is home from New York, where he went to meet his sister, Mrs. Hustle and children on their return from Norway. Mrs. Hustle is Mrs. Torberson's daughter in Davenport, Iowa. Her many friends will be glad to see her back in Canton again.

Mr. Sexe is doing a booming business with his Norwegian Centennial pennants. He has already sold over 5,000 and has orders for many more. They are certainly beauties, 15x30 inches in size, in two colors, and well made, so they will be a most lasting souvenir.

A. A. Arnold and wife seem to be doing real estate business this week. Besides the house sold in Mrs. J. H. mention of which is made elsewhere, they sold the house just north of that to Henry Mickelson. They also sold a horse to a party in Mitchell.

Naoma Keller who has been teaching school near Harrisburg for the past year, closed a very successful year with a picnic and all around good time. Her presence was greatly urged for the next year, and we are sure that Miss Naoma will answer the call.

Ole Steensland, John Wallquist, S. J. Ostmark and John Weide left last Friday for a visit to Sioux City. The calling of the mother country was too strong for these old Vikings and thus the visit. Many friends from all over the country were at the train to see them off and shower them with good wishes for a pleasant journey and safe return.

The high school senior class will repeat their play Saturday evening, May 9th, for the benefit of the city public library. This is an opportunity for the public to patronize a home talent production for a most worthy cause. The time, the place and the occasion are all deserving of your support. Come out and boost for the city library. Admission 25 and 35 cents.

Judge Kennedy is enjoying a visit from his brother Prof. John Kennedy of Batavia, N. Y. this week. Prof. Kennedy is a man of national reputation as an educator, and is personally well known by many of our people. His visit at this time is particularly opportune as the Judge is experiencing the loneliness of his wife being away from home and the companionship of his talented brother even for a few days will serve as the best possible tonic.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to our greatly improved inside pages. This is the result of our recent visit to Sioux City. We get all the news one day later than we had it before and arrangement and editorial work is done especially for this paper by Mr. LeRoy Borgas, one of the most experienced men in this line of work. We are proud of the service we are receiving from the Western Newspaper Union and our ambition is to measure up to it in the home printed pages.

J. E. Millet, of Hudson, S. D., who located in Lincoln county in 1870, and has been a resident of the territory and state ever since, talks interestingly of his early experiences in the Dakotas, and tells of some "easy money" he made in the early '70s by trapping prairie chickens and shipping them to England. He is chairman of the committee of pioneers to take charge of a typical old-time sod house which will be used as the pioneers' headquarters at the state fair at Huron next fall.
