appropriated yearly for their maintenance, and there is little of the allowance left when the end of the fiscal year is reached. The superintendents, of whom there are now seventy, are divided into four classes. They receive from $50 to $75 per month and there are always applications for vacancies on file. In each cemetery there is a comfortable lodge for the superintendent, whose duty it is to look after the grounds, raise the flag every morning, keep a register of visitors and extend all possible information. The war department selects old soldiers for these places, and no regard is paid to political considerations.

Baptist Church Notes.

At the closing session of the District Association held with the local church last week a beautiful and unusual incident occurred. That day was Rev. and Mrs. V. Conklin's 64th wedding anniversary, and the following resolutions were offered and unanimously passed:

"Resolved, that during the meetings of this association it has been a great joy to have with us Brother V. B. Conklin and his wife. Brother Conklin is in his 88th year, and Sister Conklin is in her 81st year; and this is the 64th anniversary of their marriage. We greet these aged veterans of the cross with joy in their long lives of usefulness, with congratulations that they have been spared to each other to walk life's journey together, and with thanksgiving for their abounding work in the Lord.

Resolved, that we extend to them our sincere congratulations, assure them of our joy in their presence, and our thanksgiving to God for all that He has wrought through them. And we hope and pray that they may still be spared a goodly number of years to enjoy the respect and honor in which they are held by all who have the privilege of knowing them.

Dr. S. P. Shaw, secretary of the Baptist State Convention, paid high tribute to these two pioneer workers and closed by saying that their lives should be an inspiration to us who may sometimes wonder if the struggle is worth while. Rev. A. C. Zellhoefer, pastor of the church, said he esteemed it a great privilege and an inspiration to be the pastor of these Saints in Israel.

Following the adoption of the resolution the entire audience rose and gave the Chautauqua salute to the bride and bridegroom of 64 years.

Brother Conklin made a fitting reply to these expressions of good will, fellowship and appreciation. All regret that this worthy couple expect to leave Canton in the near future, going to Detroit, Minn., to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. E. H. Foster. The good wishes of their many friends will follow them.

Owing to the fact that next Sunday is Memorial day our congregation will unite with the other churches in a union service Sunday morning at the Opera House. Sunday School and preaching service in the evening will be held as usual.

The ladies aid will meet this week Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Feldman.

The Vermillion Republican has the following to say of Herbert Rudolph who takes the leading male part in the sophomore class play, An American Citizen, which is to be given at the city theatre at Vermillion on May 20th.

"Mr. H. B. Rudolph, in the leading male part, evidences considerable skill in dramatic art, and with his powerful voice and easy stage appearance carries the part like a professional."

Program For Memorial Day.

The local G. A. R. and W. R. C. have arranged a program for the observance of Memorial day, May 30th and it is their earnest wish that the citizens of Canton and surrounding country generally will unite with them in making the day a patriotic inspiration to all. There is no better means of teaching patriotism to our children than by observing the national holidays with appropriate exercises and it is a duty we owe to them as well as to our forefathers who were instrumental in gaining for us the present day liberty and freedom from tyranny. Let every citizen lend himself to the occasion and by doing so set an example of true patriotism.

Following is a program so far as completed although more numbers may be added later.

At promptly 10 o'clock the procession led by the local drum corps, boy scouts and militia will go west from court house square on Fifth street to the Beaver Creek bridge where short, appropriate exercises will be held in memory of our sailor soldiers who lost their lives at sea. Directly following the bridge program, all who can will proceed to the cemetery where the post will take charge of the ceremonies in memory of their fallen comrades, and following these exercises the usual decorating of the graves will conclude the morning exercises.

In the afternoon a program will be given at the opera house, commencing promptly at 3 o'clock or at the call of the drum corps, will play "ye olden times patriotic tunes" at the entrance. The exercises at the opera house will be as follows:

Invocation Rev. Geo. Edw. Lewis
Song Augusta and Lois Lantaff
Memorial Address on the Life and Character of Asa Forrest, Sr. By A. R. Brown
Song Peter Quartel, "The sweet Psalmist of Israel."
Patriotic drill Westside school, Mrs. Whitehead's room.
Recitation Miss Thornton
Address Carl Benz
Song Mrs. Thurston
Recitation Miss Stella Sogn.
Recitation Ruth Jones
Recitation Ray Rudolph
Song Miss Heigerson and Mr. Sandvin.
Benediction.

High School Commencement

Last Tuesday evening was the night that the class of 1914 was issued out into the hard, cruel world to see a higher knowledge of the world. An excellent program had been previously prepared and was carried out to a nicety. The instrumental duet by Misses Wendt and Hylstendahl was as well rendered as other numbers, such as a violin solo by Prof. Grant, a vocal solo by Miss Stella Sogn, and singing by the Boys' Glee Club.

The main address of the evening was given by Prof. E. C. Perlisho of Vermillion and was a talk that if heeded by the graduates will bear fruit in after life.

Miss Florence Glasser was valedictorian and Miss Lillian Abbott salutatorian and these two young ladies are surely a pride to the class of 1914. Prof. Graham gave a short presentation of the class and in turn Chris Sandvig, Pres. of the Board, presented the diplomas.

The class of 1914 is one that all Canton and vicinity are justly proud of, and their future career will be watched with interest by those who witnessed the solemn ceremony of commencement.

Mrs. Osmond Hustill and children reached Canton and home on Friday. Mrs. Bekke accompanied them for a short visit with parents and friends. It was a sad homecoming for Mrs. Hustill but her many friends will do all in human power to make her sorrow more easy to bear and to make her feel life still holds much sweetness even when the best has gone out of it.

The senior class of the high school entertained the juniors at the parlors of the Lutheran Church on Wednesday evening. It was their last effort and of course their best, a fitting finale for their high school days. Their guests were enthusiastically appreciative of their hospitality.

Tom Urickson and wife will read this week's LEADER on the steamer Bergen Fjord. They left Canton on Tuesday for their pleasure trip abroad. Their trip is only for pleasure and they will travel as long as they find pleasure, then home, so Mr. Urickson told the LEADER, which will follow them into foreign lands. May they find all the pleasures anticipated, enjoy good health and safely return home, is the wish of all.

Wava Knowlton's little pony was seized with the wanderlust last Friday and started northward. The further he went the faster he wanted to go. When he reached Will Mitchell's place he espied four horses abreast hitched to a disk pulverizer. They were driven by Tom Olson and headed home for dinner. The little pony must have been inspired to join this company, for he circled around them until they too caught the spirit of wildness and ran in every direction. Mr. Olson was thrown to the ground and narrowly escaped serious injury, if not death. One horse fell and was so badly hurt it had to be killed.

Merritt Thayer was 9 years old last Saturday and to properly celebrate the event 22 young friends near his age were invited to assist him. The beautiful lawn seemed alive with youngsters so active were they in being everywhere at once, and their mirth and laughter was enough to make all within hearing happy. It was only hushed when the ice cream and other good things to eat required their efforts in another direction. None who were present will ever forget Merritt's birthday party.

Miss Wava Byrnes closed her school in the Rae district last week Friday. It was her first year of teaching and the term was eight months, and so satisfactory to all that she has been asked to take the school next year. There was a big picnic on Friday which is always an event looked forward to in all rural schools, and this one was enjoyed to the limit by all who attended. Miss Byrnes leaves next week for Deadwood to visit a while with her sister Mrs. Percy Smith, and breathe the pure air of the Black Hills. We all wish her a pleasant Summer.

At the solicitation of the people at Lennox the Memorial day committee have released Rev. Lewis from his part on the program as previously published in the LEADER. Rev. Lewis will deliver the Memorial day address at Lennox on May 30th and Rev. Thurston will take the opening and closing numbers on the program at the opera house in this city. It is the purpose of the committee in charge to have every religious denomination in the city represented in all patriotic programs and it is their one regret that more of these exercises of patriotic teachings can not find room in the afternoon program on Memorial day.

Mrs. W. B. Fuller went to Omaha, today where she will meet her daughter, Mrs. Howard Bowen, and baby son who are on their way here from their home at Honolulu, Hawaii, for a visit during the summer. A telegram from San Francisco recently announced their arrival there after the lengthy ocean trip. They will reach Sioux Falls Saturday. Argus Leader. Both ladies mentioned have many friends in Canton and vicinity. Mrs. Fuller was known and loved her as Miss Leavitt and Mrs. Bowen as Mary Fuller was a frequent guest at the Chas Reynolds home. She has many friends among the young people who hope to see her before she returns to her island home.
