A.—1778. HO, FOR THE FOURTH! 1870.
Grand excursion up the Hudson, through the Highlands, to Newburg, stopping at West Point and Yonkers each way, on Monday, July 4, 1870. The palace steamer SUNNYSIDE—the spacious saloons and ample accommodations of the Sunnyside make it one of the most desirable excursion steamers afloat. Being a very fast boat, she will return early, so that all can get home in time to witness the display of fireworks in the city. The view of the Highlands and old Fort Montgomery is alone worth the price of a ticket. No pains or expense will be spared to give pleasure and satisfaction to all, and it is intended to make this the most respectable excursion from this city, so that the most fastidious will find no cause to complain. A first class brass quadrille band has been engaged. Abundant refreshments on board.
