LA SERAPE.—THE NEW GARMENT FOR LADIES' wear introduced by Messrs. Tingue, Harbison & Shiner promises to become the rage this summer. It is a species of shawl well known in Mexico, from whence it derives its name, and is manufactured in a number of most beautiful colorings and designs. It is especially desirable from the ease with which it can be assumed or laid aside at the pleasure of the wearer. All the leading dry goods dealers are offering it, and the only trouble experienced thus far is that they cannot be made fast enough to supply the popular demand.
