OBITUARY

Dorothy, elder daughter of Clare and Maude Berry was born Nov. 27, 1903 at Chamberlain, S. D. A portion of her short earthly life was spent in Parker, S. D. and in Nov. 1908 she came with her parents to Canton, S. D., where she lived until July 15, 1914 when Jesus bore her in His loving arms to her beautiful home in Heaven.

As we reckon time her earthly life was short, only 10 years, 7 months and 18 days. But who can tell how God reckons time. In her few years she made as many friends, performed as many acts of kindness and left as many fond memories as most who spend many times her number of years on earth. She was a pupil in the Canton schools, had just completed her fifth grade work with a remarkably high rating and was looking forward in joyful anticipation to beginning her sixth grade next term. A member of the Congregational Sunday School she was a true little Christian, a blessed little peace-maker and a constant joy to her father, mother, sister Alice and all her friends and acquaintances.

Like some fragrant flower that diffuses its sweet perfume on every passing breeze, she gave smiles and words of friendly greeting to all whom she met.

It seems as tho God in His kindness had only loaned her to us for a short time that we might more easily understand His statement "For of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Our love and sympathy go out to the dear father and mother who have been bereft and we pray God may send them His Holy Comforter to help them turn their hearts to Him and enable them to truly say: "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

The funeral services were held at the family residence, Friday, July 17 at 2 p. m. Rev. H. W. Thurston expressed some very appropriate thoughts based on the text: "And a little child shall lead them." Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Dr. Wendt sang two beautiful songs, "Some day we'll understand" and "Some sweet day, by and by, accompanied by Mrs. Moore at the organ. The floral tributes were very beautiful and numerous, and bare mute testimony to the love and affection of sympathizing friends and relatives. The pall-bearers were Merrill Seely, Harry Clendenning, Ernest and Herbert Rudolph and the remains were laid to rest in Forest Hill cemetery by the side of a little brother we passed away a few years ago.

The out of town relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Berry, Chamberlain, S. D.; Mrs. Harley Wood, Sheldon, Iowa, and Mrs. H. H. Manpin, Egan, S. D.

"O! what do you, think the angels say,
Said the children up in heaven,
"There's a dear little girl coming home today,
She's almost ready to fly away
From the earth we used to live in;
Let's go and open the gates of pearl,
Open them wide for the new little girl."

Said the children up in heaven,
"God wanted her here, where his little ones meet,
Said the children up in heaven;
"She shall play with us in the golden street;
She has grown too fair, she has grown too sweet
For the earth we used to live in;
She needed the sunshine, this dear little girl,
That glids this side of the gates of pearl."

Said the children up in heaven,
"So the King called down from the angel's throne,
Said the children up in heaven;
"My little darling, arise and come to the place prepared in the Father's home
The home my children live in!"
Let's go and watch the gates of pearl,
Ready to welcome the new little girl!"

Said the children up in heaven,
"Far down on the earth do you hear them weep?"
Said the children up in heaven;
"For the dear little girl has gone asleep!
The shadows fall and the night clouds sweep
O'er the earth we used to live in;
But we'll go and open the gates of pearl!"

O! why do they weep for their dear little girl?"
Said the children up in heaven,
"Fly with her quickly, O angels dear,
Said the children up in heaven;
"See she is coming! Look there! Look there!
At the Jasper light on her sunny hair,
Where the veiling clouds are riven!"
Ah! hush, hush, hush! all the swift wings fur!
For the King himself, at the gates of pearl,
Is taking her hand, dear, tired little girl,
And is leading her into heaven."

Card of Thanks
We desire to thank our neighbors and friends for their thoughtful kindness and sympathy, their ever ready assistance and most beautiful floral offerings—rendered in the loss of our darling Dorothy.
