

Drink Coca-Cola The thirsty one's one best beverage. Delicious, Refreshing. THE COCA-COLA CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Every Signature is Now a Premium Coupon. SHENKBERG'S, SIOUX CITY, U. S. A.

This Signature is on all Shenberg Packages. SEND FOR PREMIUM CATALOGUE.

STOLE TO GET NEW START. Bank Cashier Experiences Overpowering Impulse to Get Some Place and Start Life Anew.

A bank teller in a middle western state grew weary of the narrow, circumscribed life in the town where he lived; he wanted wider interests, a new start in a new place, but a start with capital so he could push himself ahead. He took $35,000 of the bank's funds, jumped into his automobile and started for Mexico (this was before the recent revolution across the Rio Grande had reached such serious proportions) across Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. He expected to make a clean getaway by using a motor car instead of taking a train, forgetting that an auto can be traced.

Of the sum he stole, $25,000 was recovered in the actual wrappers in which he had taken it from the bank. The automobile was recovered and sold, and the proceeds used to make up for part of the money he had spent. This cashier is now serving a long sentence in prison merely because he experienced an overpowering impulse to go some place and start life anew.

Robbed to Play Poker. In one of the southern states a man whose habits were bad, robbed an express company of several thousand dollars. Instead of decamping he remained in the city. He confessed to the theft and said he had lost the money playing poker. The surety company sent a man to prosecute the thief. He found the defaulter had been receiving a good salary from the express company and that there was no reason for his taking the money. Further investigation revealed the fact that the county attorney had sat in the poker game and won most of the money; the other players were friends of the county attorney. The surety company dropped the case at once and paid the express company the amount of the loss.

Patience—And you say she was married on Friday? Patience—Yes. "Terribly unlucky, though." "Not at all." "Did it turn out lucky?" "Sure. She's getting big alimony now!"

Making It Hot. Bill—I see portable crematories have been suggested to follow the army in warfare. Jill—Looks as if they were trying to make war look like what General Sherman said it was.

Reform. "China is in need of many reforms." "Yes," answered the globe trotter. "What reform would you start with?" "Spelling reform."

The whale has the thickest skin of any living creature. Its hide in places attains a thickness of fully two feet.

The man who poses as a lion in society is usually a bear at home.

DAISY FLY KILLER. Placed anywhere, attracts and kills all house flies, mosquitoes, etc. Guaranteed.

Sioux City Directory. "Hub of the Northwest." FOR BEST SERVICE SHIP RICE BROTHERS.

Barber Supplies. The Kieselblatt Barber Supply Co., 615 Pierce St., Sioux City, Ia., will treat you right. Write them.

HUERTA OUT CARBAJAL IN

MEXICAN DICTATOR RETIRES TO PRIVATE LIFE—NEW RULER TAKES THE OATH.

PEOPLE TENDER AN OVATION

Former Provisional President's Resignation Accepted at Joint Session of National Congress and His Successor Sworn In.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. Mexico City.—Gen. Victoriano Huerta resigned from the provisional presidency of the Mexican republic last Wednesday evening and his resignation was accepted by the senate and chamber of deputies, by a vote of 121 to 17.

Francisco Carbajal was then appointed president and took the oath of office at the joint session of deputies and senators.

Huerta's resignation was submitted through the department of foreign relations. It was read in the house and was greeted with cries of "Viva Huerta!" It was then referred to the joint committees of governance.

Article 1. We accept the resignation presented by Gen. Victoriano Huerta as president of the Mexican united states.

Article 2. We call Licentiate Francisco Carbajal, minister of foreign relations, to assume the presidency.

A ballot was taken and the joint session approved the report.

President Carbajal proceeded to the national palace under an escort of presidential guards, and all along the way was greeted with tumultuous cheering.

Text of Resignation. The text of Gen. Huerta's resignation follows: Deputies and Senators: Public necessity, admitted by the chamber of deputies, by the senate and by the supreme court, called me to the presidency of the republic.

Seventeen months have passed, and in that brief period of time I have formed an army with which to carry out that solemn promise. You all know the immense difficulties which my government has encountered, owing to scarcity of funds, as well as to the manifest and decided protection which a great power of this continent has afforded to the rebels—so much so that when the revolution had broken up, seeing that its chief leaders were, and continued to be, divided, the power in question sought a pretext to intervene directly in the conflict and the result of this was the outrage committed at Vera Cruz by the American fleet.

Success was had, as you know, in adjusting honorably through our delegates at Niagara Falls the petty Tampico incident, but the revolution continued, with the support of whom we all know.

Personal Ambition Aside. After the highly patriotic work achieved by our delegates at Niagara Falls, there are still some of us who may say I come to seek my personal interest and not that of the republic. And as I need to refute this allegation with facts, I tender my formal resignation of the presidency of the republic.

The national congress must know that the republic, through its government, has labored in entire good faith and with the fullest energy, having succeeded in doing away with the party which in the United States calls itself democratic and having shown how the right should be defended.

To be more explicit I will say that the action of the government of the republic during its short life has dealt death blows to an unjust power. Later on, stronger workers will come, using implements that undoubtedly will end that power which has done so much harm and committed so many outrages on this continent.

In conclusion I will say that I abandon the presidency of the republic, carrying with me the highest sum of human wealth, for I declare that I have arranged at the bar of universal conscience the honor of a puritan, whom I, as a gentleman, challenge to wrest from me that possession.

Carbajal Sworn In. The galleries of the chamber of deputies were packed before the beginning of the session. Intense excitement characterized the gathering and at the close of the reading of Huerta's resignation the deputies and spectators broke into loud and continued applause.

After the acceptance of Huerta's resignation a commission was appointed by the president of the chamber to escort Senor Carbajal to the floor of the house. Very soon Senor Carbajal appeared in front of the chamber, passing through files of soldiers. He entered and as he walked to the platform the deputies stood. Speaker Manuel Mercado then administered the oath.

GEN. VILLA SORRY. Rebel Leader Had Hoped for Huerta's Capture. Juarez, Mexico.—"I would much prefer that Huerta had remained in the chair for hands on him," Gen. Villa said in Juarez when he learned of Huerta's reported resignation. "That is the only comment I care to make on the subject," he added. "I am a soldier of my country and do not care to express my opinion of the traitor's resignation."

HUERTA'S OFFICIAL CAREER.

Assumed the Reins of Office on February 19, 1913. Victoriano Huerta took an oath as provisional president of Mexico February 19, 1913, the day after Francisco I. Madero had been arrested at the national palace. Three days later Madero and Joseph Maria Pino Suarez, vice president, were shot to death on a midnight ride under guard from the palace to the penitentiary. The manner of death has never been satisfactorily explained.

One of Huerta's first acts as provisional president was to telegraph to William H. Taft, then president of the United States, the following message: "I have the honor to inform you that I have received this morning from the ranks of the capital, and from now on peace and prosperity shall reign."

Peace Short Lived. The republic was at once plunged into civil war again, notwithstanding the issuance by Huerta of a proclamation of general amnesty. The Sonora state congress officially repudiated the provisional government before Huerta had settled himself comfortably in the presidential chair.

Zapata, revolutionary leader to the south of the capital, after negotiating a few days with the new regime, went back to his guerrilla campaign. Salazar, one of the highest generals in the army, denounced Huerta. Carranza, constitutionalist leader in Chihuahua, assailed him in a bitter statement made public at San Antonio. Francisco Villa announced himself an adherent of Madero and joined the ranks of the northern army. Pascual Orozco, of the clan of the northern revolutionaries, was the lone notable figure among the disaffected who declared for the new government.

Turned Down by U. S. President Taft, nearing the end of his term, left to his successor the problem of adjusting diplomatic relations with Mexico. To Woodrow Wilson Huerta sent felicitations on the day of the American president's inauguration. Hampered at the outset of his administration by the refusal of the United States to recognize him, Huerta soon faced growing difficulties in raising funds to run his government. His uneasy hold upon affairs was weakened by minor constitutionalist victories in the north and by recurring rumors of a break with Felix Diaz and Huerta's ally in the overthrow of Madero.

On May 1 Huerta announced that he would urge congress to call elections in October to choose his successor. The congress selected October 20 as the date of the election and a decree to that effect was issued by Huerta on June 3. Felix Diaz, who had announced himself as a candidate for the presidency, was sent to Japan on July 17.

Lind's Proposal Rejected. Henry Lane Wilson, the American ambassador, was recalled to Washington and Nelson O'Shaughnessy, chargé d'affaires, was left in charge of the American interests in Mexico.

Early in August it became known that President Wilson intended to send John Lind, former governor of Minnesota, to Mexico as his personal representative in an endeavor to arrange a basis for the republic's peace. Huerta announced that he would not tolerate foreign interference.

Nevertheless Mr. Lind delivered his note from President Wilson. Huerta rejected all his proposals made by the American government, chief of which was the suggestion that he resign and that he should not be a candidate on election day. Relations between Mexico and the United States became acute. President Wilson proclaimed his policy in a dress before congress to which was attached the correspondence between Mr. Lind and the Huerta administration.

Dominguez Disappears. Huerta was attacked in the senate by Senator Dominguez, who had the hardihood to speak what was in the minds of himself and some of his colleagues. Dominguez adopted a resolution calling for an investigation. Dominguez's reply was dramatic and swift. He marched a column of troops to the deputies' chamber, seized 110 of the men there into prison. Next he dissolved congress and took to himself the executive authority, calling for the election of a new membership on October 26. Through Mr. O'Shaughnessy the United States made representations against violence to the imprisoned deputies. During the campaign certain influences close to the dictator worked for his return to the presidency, with Gen. Blanquet as his running mate, and lent color to the persistent report that Huerta really desired to be elected and that his pretenses to the contrary were a sham.

When it became certain that the elections had resulted in no constitutional choice on account of the failure of voters to go to the polls, the American government peremptorily called on him to resign. In a statement to the diplomatic corps on November 9 he announced that he would declare the result of the election null and order another election.

Lind Leaves Mexico. On November 12 Huerta refused to accede to the American demand for his resignation, and John Lind left Mexico City for Vera Cruz with the Mexican finance minister, Francisco de la Lanza, ex-Minister of Commerce, Moheño, and Gen. Juarez and Mario Maas aboard.

A military band played martial airs outside Villa's headquarters as the news of Huerta's resignation was spread abroad.

Rebels Will Set Up. Havana.—The steamer Espana has arrived here from Vera Cruz with the Mexican finance minister, Francisco de la Lanza, ex-Minister of Commerce, Moheño, and Gen. Juarez and Mario Maas aboard.

In an interview, Senor Moheño said: "If the constitutionalists come into power their government will be short lived. If they grant the people liberty, public opinion will overthrow them and if not another revolution will oust them."

Gen. Huerta is the most courageous man in the world and a general military organizer, but is inefficient as an organizer of a government."

Senor Moheño said he intended to write a book entitled: "My Political Conduct After a Tragic Ten Years," with the sub-title: "Who Were Madero's Real Murderers?"

MESSAGE TO U. S.

CARBAJAL SENDS HIS VIEWS ON THE SITUATION IN MEXICO—HOPE TO END WAR.

PEACE PLEA BY NEW RULER

General Declares His Chief Purpose Now is to Conduct Negotiations for Entrance of His Forces into Capital and to Establish Fresh Government.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. Mexico City.—President Carbajal has ordered all political prisoners released at once.

The standing committee of congress held a session and resolved to dissolve after addressing a proclamation to the people of the republic. President Carbajal conferred with the political leaders of the different parties in an attempt to bring about an understanding among all factions.

Monterey.—Fighting by constitutionalists is over in Mexico. If plans announced here by Venustiano Carranza go into effect, Gen. Carranza declared his main object now would be to conduct negotiations for the constitutionalists to enter Mexico City and establish a government without further bloodshed or damage to property.

Washington, D. C.—Francisco Carbajal, successor to Gen. Huerta as the provisional president of Mexico, advised the United States government informally that he intended to retire in favor of Gen. Carranza, the constitutionalist chief. Mr. Carbajal wishes only that a general amnesty be proclaimed and protection given to property of those who oppose the constitutionalists.

This statement of the attitude of Huerta's successor, together with the announcement from Sanitillo that Carranza was willing to enter into negotiations with Carbajal relative to the transfer of authority at Mexico City, was regarded here as particularly assuring a cessation of hostilities and the restoring of peace in Mexico.

The views of Mr. Carbajal were expressed in detail to Secretary Bryan by Jose Castellot, former member of the Mexican senate, who called at the state department with a personal telegram which he had received through the Mexican embassy. It was the first communication between the American government and the Carbajal administration. The message incidentally revealed that Gens. Huerta and Blanquet, now en route to Puerto Mexico, are planning to go to Europe.

The communication addressed to Mr. Castellot, a personal friend of the new president, was as follows: "I have just taken the oath of office as president of the republic. Gens. Huerta and Blanquet departed tonight for Europe. I desire to make it known with emphasis that my only purpose is to facilitate a solution of the grave questions which weigh upon our country. I have not the slightest ambition for myself and merely wish to terminate the internal conflict of our country. Please give me your impressions on the situation in Washington.

Francisco Carbajal." This message, Castellot explained, meant that Mr. Carbajal had taken office only as a means of bridging the gap from the Huerta regime to the constitutionalists and that the new president had no desire to remain in office.

States. The constitutionalists grew stronger and continued their advance to the south. They captured Victoria, Chihuahua, Juarez and Colima.

The situation became so critical that Great Britain, Germany, France, Spain and Japan ordered warships to Mexican waters.

Fighting continued at Tampico and many other centers and Torreón was taken by the constitutionalists.

An embargo placed on the exportation of arms from the United States to Mexico was raised early in February of the present year.

A large number of American troops were concentrated on the border and the American fleet in Mexican waters was strengthened.

The constitutionalists advanced on Torreón and Monterey and the former place was captured early in April.

Then came the departure of John Lind from Vera Cruz and the arrest of a party of American bluejackets at Tampico, for which an apology and salute were demanded by the United States and refused by Huerta.

U. S. Lands Marines. On April 12 bluejackets and marines were landed at Vera Cruz in consequence of the reported arrival of a large consignment of arms and ammunition for Huerta. A number of Americans were killed in the street fighting. The Mexicans retired and destroyed a portion of the railroads.

Shortly after a mediation proposal from Argentina, Brazil and Chile was accepted and a conference ensued at Niagara Falls.

In the interval American troops relieved the bluejackets at Vera Cruz and have since remained in occupation of that port.

Tampico and Zacatecas fell into the constitutionalists' hands and the victorious armies continued their march on Mexico City, where rumors have been in circulation for many weeks of the resignation of Huerta.

Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and Loss of Sleep.

HOPE FOR THE BALD HEAD

Sewing Hairs on Scalps is Proving Successful—Fine Gold Wires Are Used.

A method of sewing hairs in the human scalp in cases of partial or total baldness has been successfully used in several instances by Doctor Szekeley, at the hospital of Saint Stephen at Budapest, and a report appears in the London Times.

The number of hairs "planted" in the head of a patient has been as many as 50,000. One hundred hairs are drawn through punctures in the scalp to every square centimeter, and as both ends are left free, the number is thus 200, or over one thousand to each square inch. Very fine gold wires are used, one five-hundredth of an inch in diameter, and fine long hairs from a woman's head are attached at the middle to these. The gold loop or knot acts as an "anchor," and after sterilization is introduced into the subcutaneous tissue, where it is slightly twisted, and holds the hair permanently in position. It is stated that 500 hairs can thus be introduced into the scalp within three-quarters of an hour.

Doctor Szekeley has designed a special instrument for introducing and fixing the gold wires. The latter are so light and so fine that the total amount of gold in the scalp after "planting" 50,000 hairs is only one gramme. The hair is stated to appear perfectly natural, and a capsule of tissue appears to form around each gold wire knot. The inflammation resulting from the treatment entirely disappears in from ten to twelve days, and in no case, so far, has any intense inflammation or suppuration resulted. The hair can be washed, brushed and treated with oil in the ordinary way, and one of the earliest patients so treated, a lady, has retained her hair intact, with the original luster and flexibility, for over seven years.

Put "Pop" in Actors. A high-tension dressing room is being installed at the Palace theater for the electrification of performers before they go upon the stage. The room will contain a powerful Tesla coil and the walls will be wound with heavy insulated copper wire carrying high currents. Tired artists will enter this chamber and emerge filled with electricity and enthusiasm. It is expected that a short visit to the "pop house," as the artists have already termed it, will send any actor upon the stage leaping up to blowing-off steam pressure.—New York American.

Striving to Please. "Josiah," said Mrs. Cornotossel, "the first of the summer boarders will arrive tomorrow."

"I know it."

"Well, hide those scientific works on agriculture. And don't forget to touse your hair and stick your trousers in your boots. Summer boarders always like to imagine there's a real comic-picture farmer around the place."

Sure Enough. Patience—This paper says an apparatus invented by a Paris scientist hatches chickens and protects them from all microbes until they reach a desired age.

Patience—What is the age when a microbe desires a chicken?

The Rub. "Does it aggravate you that I ask you for 25 cents?"

"No, that does not aggravate me; it is the giving of it to you."—Pages Folies (Paris).

Sweet Innocent. He—it was fearfully hot at the game this afternoon.

She—Why didn't you get one of those baseball fans we hear so much about?

Defined. "What is 'innate wisdom?'"

"It's knowing all the little meannesses of your neighbor before the town gossip or a real estate deal puts you wise."—Judge.

There are spiders in Java which make webs so strong that it requires a knife to sever them.

Philosophy in Hindu Proverbs. There is a Hindu proverb which can give a good deal of solid satisfaction in a hard world. It runs, "I had no boots to my feet and I murmured until I met a man along the road with no feet."

Must Be a Peat. Jinks—What sort of a chap is Johnson?

Binks—Well, if you ever see two men in a corner, and one looks bored to death, the other is Johnson.—Puck.

YOUR OWN DRUGGIST WILL TELL YOU. The trouble with good resolutions is that it is so hard to keep them for any length of time without spilling.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."—Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Your Liver Is Clogged Up

That's Why You're Tired—Out of Sorts—Have No Appetite. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS will put you right in a few days.

They do their duty. Cure Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion and Sick Headache. SMALL PILL, SMALL DOSE, SMALL PRICE. Genuine must bear Signature.

BLACK LEG. Losses Surely Prevented by Carter's Little Liver Pills. Leg, fresh, reliable, prepared by Carter's Little Liver Pills.

FREE TO ALL SUFFERERS. The superiority of Carter's Little Liver Pills is due to the fact that they are made of the finest French Remedy No. 100.

W. N. U., SIOUX CITY, IOWA, 30-1914.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson. In Use For Over Thirty Years. CASTORIA. ALCOHOL-3 PER CENT. Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of INFANTS-CHILDREN. Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral. NOT NARCOTIC. Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and Loss of Sleep. Fac Simile Signature of J. C. Watson. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK. 35 Doses at 35 CENTS. Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act.