OFFICE OF THE
HARLEM AND NEW YORK NAVIGATION CO.,
Pier Third avenue and 130th street,
HARLEM, N. Y., March 17, 1872.

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors this day held, the President having announced the sudden decease of Mr. C. W. Timpson, one of the directors of the company, a bereaving occurred on the 14th instant, on motion, a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Henry P. McIlvain, Henry Friedman and Henry Schubart were appointed to submit resolutions suitable to the occasion, and thereupon reported the following:—

Resolved, That while bowing submissively to the will of an all ruling Providence, we express our deep sorrow and grief at the demise of our much esteemed associate and friend, who has been so suddenly removed from our midst, and from a career of usefulness in the future of life.

Resolved, That during our association with him for the past ten years, he has always been a faithful and zealous associate in the board, and endeared himself to us and all connected with the company by his many good qualities and his devotion to the interests of the company, and by his uniform kindness and genial spirit.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his children, who have so suddenly been made orphans by this bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the Herald and New York Times, and that the Board do now adjourn and attend the funeral in a body.

J. N. WATSON, Secretary.
