About two months since a woman named Ann iley, alias Ann Flood, who has saved up about 000 by dint of hard work and economy in living, s sent to the Island on a charge of petit larceny, the time of her trial she was unrepresented counsel. About a month after she had ached the prison a young man named ward Peterscalled to see her, but was unsuccess-, the keeper refusing to admit him. The next y Peters called at the office of Messrs. Howe & immel and stated that Mrs. Reiley was a friend his, that he wished to see her and that she is desirous of having them (Messrs. Accordgly Mr. Howe gave Peters a note the keeper, requesting that the arer be admitted to an audience with rs. Reiley. Armed with this Peters set out for the land, not, however, until he had written out an der for $100, which he proposed getting the imisoned woman to sign. On meeting the woman told her that he was a clerk in the employ of essrs. Howe & Hummel, who had agreed to proe for her a new trial, and probable acquittal, if e would first sign the order for $100, which mount they demanded as a fee. Mrs. Reiley ready assented to his proposition, signed the paper, d the young man left. Coming back to the ty he altered the order from $100 to 75, and taking it to the Williamsburg Dime Savgs Bank, where the woman had her money on deosit, had it honored without any difficulty whatver. Nothing was since seen or heard of Peters ntil yesterday morning, when he was arrested and ken before Judge Dowling, at the Tombs Police ourt, where he made a clean breast of the whole fair, and was of course locked up.
