CANTON, SOUTH DAKOTA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1914.

$1.50 PER ANNUM

MACHINERY FOR THE FARM, CHEAP

We have decided to sell at PRICES LESS THAN WHOLESALE our line of gang plows, sulky plows, breaking plows, and walking stubble for Fall trade. We have a large stock of these plows on hand; nice, clean goods but we don't expect them to remain in our possession long at these ridiculously low prices, so come at once if you want a plow for Fall. Remember we sold all the corn cultivators we offered you in June, in about a week, they went like "hot cakes," we were unable supply to supply the demand. Now that stubble plows are in season we know there will be a "great rush" for them.
