A.—JOHN D. HAMLIN, AUCTIONEER.
Warranted, speed, style, beauty.
Peremptory sale, by public auction, at No. 26 East Seventeenth street, first door west of Union square,
THIS DAY (WEDNESDAY), October 8, at 10 o'clock, comprising as fine and fast Horses as any connoisseur may wish to purchase, all having been used in the city for the past year or more; are hardy, rugged, well acclimated; accustomed to cars and pavements; consequently preferable to green country horses, which are subject to disease. Also 2 Brewster Wagons, Dunscomb Harness, &c.
Consisting of team blood bay Geldings, three-quarters thoroughbred, raised in Kentucky, on the stock farm of Col. Bramlette; are 15¾ high (16 in harness), 7 years old last spring; are half brothers, sired by Young Consternation, dam the Wise mare of Virginia; have pure blooded appearance, high knee action long, arched neck; fine bone and muscle; drive like one horse; have trotted at Long Branch many times the past summer, with owner and wife in 2:35; are warranted to roll this day of sale in 3:15 or no sale, and are warranted sound and kind; also Brewster, of Broome street, Top Wagon used only four months; Dunscomb double road Harness, fine pair kersey Blankets, Whip, sheet, &c.
Also bay trotting gelding Senator, 15½ high, 6 years old, sired by Black Hawk, dam Lady Cisco, which has a record of 2:31½. Young Senator was raised in Vermont by John Eldridge, Esq., and trotted a mile one year ago in 2:50; he has extra fine style when moving, rangey and free, requiring no booting; is not afraid of even a locomotive; has fine bone, muscle and feet, without a pimple or fault; hardy, rugged and acclimated, and is warranted sound and kind in every particular.
Also bay Gelding, 15¼ high, 7 years old, sired by Edward Everett, dam a fast mare, raised by General Cheatham, of Nashville, which is the mother of many fast trotters, having a record herself of 2:24. This gelding was also raised by John Eldridge, of Vermont, and trotted one year ago in 2:36½; has long arched neck, fine limbs, and very handsome in form; moves with grace and beauty, kind and amiable in disposition, without fault or blemish; has trotted on Prospect Park with Senator to top wagon in 2:45 without urging or training, and is warranted sound and kind.
The two above horses were purchased in Vermont one year ago by Mr. Dahlman for present owner, regardless of price; have been used both single and double in the city and at the Branch by present owner, his wife and daughters. Will be sold separate if desired.
Also, an extra handsome and extra stylish three quarter thoroughbred dark brown Gelding, 15½ high, 7 years old, sired by Tippoo Sahib, dam Beauty of Orange; was raised on the stock farm of Colonel Stratton, Orange county, and purchased by present owner two years ago; is a handsome, fine, free and pleasant driver as the city affords; is a perfect family pet and a fine gentleman's road horse; can trot in 3 minutes sure; afraid of nothing and is warranted sound and kind, together with three quarter seat Brewster road Wagon, Dunscomb Harness, Blankets, Robes, &c., all first class and in fine order.
Sale positive and peremptory, being the property of a well known family, who sail for Nassau on Saturday.
