COMPLETE TRIUMPH OF MLLE. GEOFFROY.

READ THE TESTIMONY OF THE PRESS.
"Determined to achieve a success in New York equal to London and Paris. The performance was the most perfect ever witnessed in America."—Herald.
"A very decided triumph. Mlle. Geoffroy made a hit."—World.
"New York will now be added to the long list of cities which this production has carried by storm."—Tribune.
"Lecocq's work was capitally interpreted. Mlle. Geoffroy is a finished songstress and actress."—Times.
"Mlle. Geoffroy is handsome and an excellent actress and accomplished singer, far more so than most of her sister queens in this realm of musical art."—Sun.
"The manner in which 'Girofle' is placed on the stage is sumptuousness itself."—Graphic.
"The dresses are magnificent, and the mise en scene at times recalls the fabled glories of the 'Arabian Nights.'"—Commercial Advertiser.
"The piece is excellently acted and sung."—Evening Post.
"No opera bouffe yet produced in America has been so well performed, so brilliantly represented, or so well received."—Telegram.
"A distinguished success."—Mail.
"Each number was loudly and demonstratively applauded. Mlle. Geoffroy is the incarnation of the spirit of opera bouffe—a fair blonde, with merry twinkling eyes, and plump, compact figure. She presents the peculiar attributes of chic which Tostee possessed."—Express.
