DIST. A TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE CLAN-NA GAEL:—It having been publicly reported that the Clan-na-Gael has appointed a Committee of Arrangements for the proposed funeral procession on Sunday, it is but proper to announce that no such committee has been appointed or authorized to act in behalf of the Clan-na-Gael. While it is but right and proper that a fitting tribute should be paid to the memory of John Mitchel, yet the nature and principles of our organization forbid such demonstration, and our tribute to the dead patriot will be other than a public display.
