THOSE WHO HAVE A TASTE FOR AND TAKE DElight in viewing a good display of artistic decoration can be gratified therein by calling in at SCHIERENBECK'S Saloon, corner of John and Cliff streets, and studying the fresco ornamentation just finished there. For taste and execution nothing can excel it, and it is a beautiful memorial alike of the liberality of the proprietor and the taste and skill of the artist, Mr. C. Johannesmeyer, who has recently established himself in the business at No. 1,306 First avenue. Those requiring such work done would be wise to call on him, see his designs and learn his figures ere contracting with the fashionable and expensive establishments on Broadway.
