MEMORIAL DAY

On last Sunday Memorial Services were observed by the G. A. R., W. R. C., and the citizens of this community in general.

Rev. Preston of the Congregational Church delivered a very fitting sermon to a large and interested audience. It is the custom in Canton to have union services on this day, and as usual this custom was observed, and the ministers of the M. E. and Baptist churches joined, and took part in conducting the services.

THE CITY OF CANTON OBSERVES DEORATION DAY

As per request of Mayor Bennett, the banks and other business houses in the city were closed until afternoon, so that all who desired to do so might take part in the parade, which was formed at the Library building marshalled by the Gate City Band, under the leadership of Mozart Skartvedt. A detachment of Company "E" of the National Guard, followed by veterans of the Civil War, members of the Womens Relief Corps, and several hundred school children carrying flags and flowers marched to the music of the band up fifth street to the opera house, where teams and automobiles were in waiting, and the crowds were loaded in and taken to Forrest Hill Cemetery.

At the cemetery the Ritualism of the G. A. R. was observed, and the Memorial address delivered by Judge Asa Forrest. The soldiers graves were decorated by the school children, who were grouped in four squads, escorted by teachers of the public schools, and members of the National Guard.

Mrs. Tillie Hass, President of the W. R. C. then formally presented a monument to the Grand Army Post. The W. R. C. had recently erected this monument, locating it near the center of the cemetery, and it was at this site that the decoration and memorial services were held.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE IN THE AFTERNOON

In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the opera house was filled to overflowing with those who came to hear the final ceremonies of the day.

The W. R. C. had prepared a program which consisted of patriotic songs, recitations and addresses, Rev. A. C. Zellhoefer gave a splendid patriotic address, and the address of Mrs. Murner was said by many to have been one of the best they had ever had the pleasure of hearing. It certainly was fine and should be published for the benefit of those who were not fortunate enough to hear it. The program was all very good and the members of the Post and Relief Corps wish to thank those assisting and especially the teachers and children of the public schools, and those who helped in the forming of the parade.

We wish to express gratification over the attendance at the various exercises, and in making the day what it should be a memorial day in fact.

Wm. M. Cuppett.

Social Functions of C. H. S. Seniors During Commencement Week

May 15th the Senior class was invited to the home of Prof. and Mrs. C. G. Lawrence, which was tastefully decorated in the Seniors colors. Delicious refreshments were served and naturally enjoyed by all. The next thing on the program was class day at the High School building. After the exercises, the members of the class went down to "Al and Eds" and had a "Senior Sundae" which was fixed up for this occasion. On Saturday night, the class was entertained by Miss Juel and Mr. Hockstad at the Juel home. After playing different games and having an indoor track meet, dainty refreshments were served. Sunday night was the Baccalaureate Sermon.

Next in line came the party given by Karl Benz at his home. Frappe was served by the Misses Wendt, Sandvig and Bainbridge, after which delightful games were played, following these once more came the "eats." Mrs. Benz was assisted by the Misses Thelma and Lola Hansen, who after supper entertained the Seniors by singing a number of songs, and needless to say was very much enjoyed by all.

On Tuesday night the class was entertained at the home of Orpha Thornton. Every one had a delightful time in spite of the fact they almost had to wade home.

The Seniors entertained the Juniors to a Carnival. Various booths were made and decorated in the Senior and Junior colors. Candy, Ice-cream, Coney Island Red Hots, and Lemo booths were made beside the other attractions of "African dodger," the cane you ring is the cane you get," etc. "Sousa's" band furnished music for the evening. Everyone reported a good time and plenty to eat of Carnival "eats" as "cracker jack," "Ice-cream" etc.

On Friday night, May 28th the Senior class was entertained, this time at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Parke. Everything was in the Senior colors, green and white even to the green Frappe. The evening was very much enjoyed by all and everyone pronounced Dr. and Mrs. Parke royal entertainers.

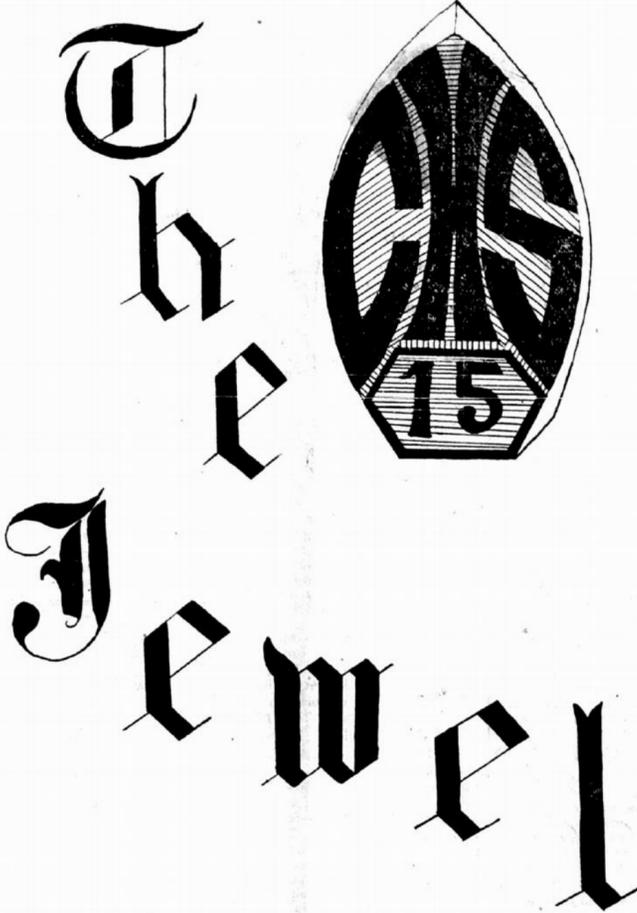

Last of all came Tuesday evening June 1st and night of graduation, when the Seniors got their "sheepskins" or clearance papers. After the graduation exercises were over the class was invited to the hospitable home of Lillian Sandvig. Needless to say from former experience every one had a lovely time. Dr. and Mrs. Jones and Prof. and Mrs. Lawrence were also guests.

The Terrible Cost of War

Give me the money that has been spent in war and I will purchase every foot of land upon the globe. I will clothe every man, woman and child in attire of which kings and queens would be proud. I will build a schoolhouse on every hill and in every valley over the whole earth. I will build an academy in every town and endow a college in every state and fill it with able professors. I will crown every hill with a place of worship consecrated to the promulgation of peace. I will support in every pulpit a teacher of righteousness, so that on every Sabbath the chimes on one hill should answer to the chimes on another around the earth's wide circumference, and the voice of prayer and the song of praise should ascend like a universal holocaust to heaven.

—Henry Richard

Miss Marie Engen returned Friday evening from a three months trip which included Texas and California. She visited many former Cantontites and reports all delighted with their new home.

The above design was used on the 1915 Senior book and is the work of Allen Hvistendahl and Ben Kennedy, two Senior artists.

The Man Who Came Back From The War on Tuberculosis

By special arrangement and through the courtesy of local Modern Woodmen, the Lyric theater has booked a reel of 1,040 feet, featuring Robert Wilson of Missouri, in a true and realistic film story of his part in the present war—not of bloodshed—but in the fight against and conquest of that menacing monster of the human flesh—tuberculosis. Wilson is one of the million members of the Modern Woodmen of America. Discovering that he is afflicted with this disease, he takes advantage of the comforts, care and cure of the Sanatorium owned, maintained and operated by that Society, free of charge to its members. For several years that fraternal institution has thus actively and effectively cooperated in the world-wide movement advocated by the Red Cross and medical authorities, to stamp out the dread "white plague" and Wilson is the beneficiary of this Woodmen life-saving station. It is an intensely interesting and heart-gripping story of the leave-taking of wife and children. Weak in body and hopeless in mind he journeys to the beautiful Rocky Mountain region near Colorado Springs, Colo., where, in the rarified climate and constant sunshine, at an altitude of 7,000 feet, he is destined to spend nine months at the foot of Mount Cedar, in the care of the most modern Sanatorium in the world. His experiences in "chasing the cure," his absolute rest from all cares and labor, his gradual return to health and strength, his "hikes" among the fragrant pines and over the rocky trails of the U. S. forest reserve, leased by and adjoining the Sanatorium, result in his final return to family and friends, victorious over his foe. "The Man Who Came Back" is a thrilling and dramatic story—and absolutely true as well; indeed, his experience has been duplicated by nearly 2,000 of his fellow Neighbors, who have already enjoyed the benefits of this justly celebrated institution. This film is pronounced by competent authorities to be one of the very best in this highly-developed age of motion pictures, and is in such great demand that it can be booked for only one day and night in each town or city. It is a rare opportunity one can not afford to miss. At the Lyric theater, on June 5, Saturday evening.

TWENTY YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

Bunt Dixon took in the Hawarden races last week.

Born, Monday morning, June 3, 1895, a son to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Kennedy.

Mrs. H. K. Rise and sister, Miss Gunda Jacobson, left Tuesday for St. Ansgar, Mitchell county, Iowa, for a visit with relatives.

The Worthing ball champions played the Canton boys at this place last Saturday a lively game, beating the Canton club by a score of 12 to 8. O. M. Iverson was umpire, and E. W. Norton was on hand to see fair play all 'round. Friend Norton had a stuffed club which he intended using on the first kicker, consequently it was a square game with little kicking.

Geo. Byers and Sam Thorson returned last week from the reservation, where they located claims in Pratt county. They report everything in the stock line doing well. Plenty of rain has fallen in that section of the state since they left.

Miss Jenny Rudolph left for Manchester, Iowa, Thursday morning.

Comrades N. C. Nash and C. A. South left Tuesday for Pierre to attend the G. A. R. encampment. Mrs. South accompanied her husband.

Obituary

Richard Ainsworth was born on a farm near Lancashire, England, January 14, 1842. He was the only child of Joseph and Isabella (Woods) Ainsworth.

In 1866 he emigrated to this country and engaged in his chosen occupation, farming, in the state of Minnesota. From the Gopher State he came to Dakota Territory in May, 1873 and located on a claim in Grant Township.

Mr. Ainsworth was married twice, his first wife being Miss Mary Balderston, whom he led to the altar of matrimony in Minnesota, and by her he was the father of one daughter, Isabella. After her death and two years subsequent to his arrival in Dakota, he was united in wedlock to Miss Janet Curry. To this union were born six children, three boys and three girls, as follows: James, Joseph, Alice, Anna, Violet and Paul.

At the age of 53 he was converted in a cottage prayer-meeting and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and has been a consistent member ever since. He was a good husband and father.

He began to fall in health in May, 1914 and it developed into diabetes. He was a patient sufferer and was confined to his bed for three weeks and three days. He said he was prepared to go and often expressed a desire to depart and be at rest. He departed from this life at 11:30 May 26, 1915, at the age of 73 years, 4 months and 13 days.

The children were all present at the funeral: J. R. Ainsworth, Salem, South Dakota; Joseph Ainsworth, Worthing, South Dakota; Mrs. Alice Farr, Garden City, Kansas and Mrs. Herman Gurnsey, Miss Violet Ainsworth and Paul Ainsworth, of this city.

The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church Sunday May 30, 1915, conducted by Rev. A. W. Thurston. A large company of old friends and neighbors were present. Many beautiful flowers were presented by friends showing the esteem in which the departed was held. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the relatives. May the comforting presence of the Heavenly Father be theirs.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to our relatives and friends for the flowers, kindness and sympathy, during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

Methodist Church

Services will be resumed as usual at the M. E. Church. The subject of the sermon in the morning will be "The True Light" in the evening it will be "War and Progress" The weather for the last two Sabbaths have cut down the attendance of the Sabbath School. Let us endeavor to reach the 300 we were striving for a short time ago. In all probability before snow flies room will be made that the school may be unfettered in its growth. The Epworth League at seven o'clock invites all the young people not elsewhere obligated.

Don't neglect a summer cold. A bronchial cough causes broken sleep and lowers your vitality. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound soothes and heals raw, inflamed membranes, stops tickling in throat and clears stuffy, wheezy breathing. Contains no opiates; children like it; good for all colds, coughs, croup and bronchial affections.

HUDSON HITS

Miss Marie Lunder of Canton, who is a trained nurse, is here taking care of Mac Iverson. The care of her father was too much for Miss Nellie Iverson, who was breaking down under the strain, and it will be a great responsibility off her mind to have this trained help. Mr. Iverson was able to be out a bit Tuesday, in the auto.

County Treasurer Henry Hvattum now owns a handsome Chandler car, and is now just as popular a bachelor as Knute Jacobson—in fact he has Knute going some, we were confidentially informed at Canton the other day.

Miss Marie Lunder of Canton one of the best nurses in the state, took care of Mrs. Herbert Fitch during her very sick spell, remaining until yesterday, Mrs. Fitch having improved very much, and is able to be up and about the house again.

FAIRVIEW FACTS

Miss Beatie Jones was a passenger to Canton last Tuesday.

Mrs. Roy Smith and little son of Ames, Iowa, visited the past week at the T. T. Smith home.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid met Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Vermilya. Out of town ladies present were, Mrs. Lein and Mrs. Pulver of Canton.

G. J. Moen, wife and children autoed to Canton Saturday evening.

S. A. Amunson was an over Sunday visitor with his father and sister, returning Monday noon to his work at Canton.

Peter Skartvedt reached Canton Monday night for a visit with his parents and family.

A Mistake Made By Many

When you suffer pains and aches by day and sleep disturbing bladder weakness by night, feel tired, nervous and run down, the kidneys and bladder should be restored to healthy, strong and regular action. It is a mistake to postpone treatment. Foley Kidney Pills put the kidneys in sound healthy condition and keep them active and strong.
