When the distant stars give out their light
At the close of a dying day,
And all the world in silent night
Awaits the sleepy stay.
Out from the heart of dreamland,
Riding with the dew,
Dear heart, you'll feel my coming for,
You know my world is you.

100 Acre Farm at Auction

On the County Line 5 miles east of Beresford, S. D.; 2 miles west and 4 north of Alcester, S. D.; and just north of the Gothland church. Monday, June 21, commencing at 3 o'clock.

DESCRIPTION OF THE FARM: The farm is the former Ed. Stark place. It is described as the NE. 1-4 of Sec. 1, R. 50, Twp. 95, Union County, South Dakota. It consists of 100 acres all under cultivation except a small plot of about ten acres reserved for buildings, grove and a small piece of hay land. Has good 7-room house with outside cellar, two good wells with good water, new corn crib and granary, barn and hay loft, etc. All fenced and cross fenced. Small apple and plum orchard.

REASON FOR SELLING:—My reason for selling this farm is that my children each have farms of their own and I am not able to give it my personal attention. It will therefore go to the highest bidder without reserve or day of sale.

This is one of the best farms in this part of the state. Located convenient to market, has always been well farmed and cared for, and will make an ideal farm home for the right party.

TERMS OF SALE:—10 per cent cash or bankable paper on day of sale; 25 per cent March 1, 1916, when deed and possession will be given; balance can remain on the farm for five years at 5 per cent interest.

Old Time Friends Gather to Pay Respects to Departing Pioneer of Roundup

The following was taken from the Roundup Record and concerns one of our former Canton boys. It also goes to show what high esteem he and his family were held in Roundup:

An elaborate banquet was given at Danil's Cafe Tuesday evening in honor of Dr. G. E. O'Neil, who leaves tomorrow for Long Beach, Calif., "Twenty-two of the old time friends of the doctor gathered about the festive board to pay their respects to the departing member of the "old guard," and altho the occasion was one of regret over the loss of a worthy friend and honored citizen, much wit and repartee was in evidence and the event was a most enjoyable one. Caterer Danils surpassed himself in preparing the feast which was one of the most pretentious served here for some time.

L. R. Carroll acted as master of ceremonies and all present were called upon to express their thoughts and sentiments in connection with the break in the ranks occasioned by the removal of Dr. O'Neil. Many excellent talks were made and from their tone it was confidently expected that the doctor would change his mind about leaving before the close of the banquet. A number of grapevine telegrams from some of those who have preceded the doctor into the unknown were read and caused considerable merriment. Among these sending their regrets in this form were, Judge Webb, "Doc" Fishback, Ed. Parriott, Jim Pat Rose, Henry Grams, Pete Hansen and Kaiser Wilhelm.

The doctor responded to the many kind words said about him by his friends with a neat speech which left no doubt in the minds of those present that the feeling of regret is shared in by him in an equal measure with those whom he leaves behind in dear ol' Roundup.

Those present besides the guest of honor were: Mayor J. H. Grant, C. E. Davison, L. R. Carroll, G. J. Jeffries, B. P. Radigan, M. D. Staunton, H. B. Thompson, Thos. J. Mathews, A. W. Eiselein, Dick McHale, R. E. Browne, W. J. Noble, Earl Reid, Henry Anderson, E. T. Barron, C. P. Tillman, I. E. Schneider, A. W. Strasser, A. A. Morris, H. P. Lambert, Dr. C. T. Pigot and O. W. Lambert.

The Fad Orchestra furnished music during the progress of the banquet which was greatly enjoyed. It was a late hour when the banqueters rose from the table and departed for their homes.
