WALL STREET,
WEDNESDAY, March 27—6 P. M.

There has been no lack of activity in to-day's market, and no material change of prices to ruffle the temper of the bulls. If something of a weak-kneed disposition was manifested at one time it was shortly recovered from, and the whole list braced up before the close. Particularly was this the case with the granger stocks, which are wanted by Mr. Gould and the small fry which floats in his wake—by Mr. Gould because he aspires to the control of the Northwestern property, and by the small fry because they think there are crumbs to be picked up. If Mr. Gould is aiming to control the Northwestern road at the next election it is evident that, by ownership or proxy, he must command a majority of the voting interest. This voting interest is represented by $15,000,000 of common stock, $21,500,000 of preferred and $3,750,000 of bonds—in round numbers $40,000,000. To secure control, $21,000,000 or thereabouts—represented by 210,000 shares of stock and bonds—must be secured by purchase or proxy. To do this it is stated that a pool has been made as follows:—Mr. Keene to account for 75,000 shares, the Amsterdam people (Scott) 60,000 shares, Chicago 50,000 shares, and the Rufus Hatch contingent 25,000 shares. How near the above parties are to the mark is a matter of conjecture; but that Gould is striving to attain it is a matter of fact, as evidenced by his persistent buying of the property. Lake Shore, late in the day, resumed its old position of favorite, and sold up to 65, as from its successful business, and the prospect of the next dividend being at least 3 per cent, it was justly entitled to do. Wabash also made a further advance, based upon increased earnings due to the corn shipments, which are growing larger day by day. Even the Ohio and Mississippi moribund was galvanized into new life and advanced ¾ per cent under the hopes that the meeting of the Reorganization Committee, at Baltimore, to-morrow might do something for it. Stocks were all strong at the close, partially on account of foreign war news and partially because a bull feeling is just now prominent in the market.
