A.—PURE, DELICIOUS COFFEE.

Every person who has been in Rio or in Paris knows that coffee in any of those cities is a beverage superior to that we here drink. Senhor Coelho, an intelligent and wealthy Brazilian coffee planter, who came lately to travel in this country, inquired into the reasons of that inferiority, and found it to be due to improper roasting. He devised a new kind of roasting machine, by which the process is thoroughly done, and then imports his own selected coffee, and the result is superior to any in American markets, which he now offers to the public in his just open store, 750 6TH AV.,

A ROASTED BRAZILIAN COFFEE,

at lower prices than generally asked for. As the coffee is pure a much lesser quantity of powder will be found sufficient than with other coffees, the economy resulting therefrom being considerable. The Brazilian coffee is equal to the best drank in Paris or Rio. Let hotels, boarding houses and households try it once and no other will be ever bought. Packages to suit purchasers delivered by our wagons. PAULO COELHO & MONTFELD, 750 6th av.
