BASEBALL NOTES.

The first professional match of the season in this vicinity will be played on the Union Ground, Brooklyn, on Saturday. Manager Cammeyer's new team will cross bats with the New Bedford Club, of New Bedford, Mass., one of the clubs which is contesting for the international championship this season.

Quilty, formerly the catcher of the Alaska Club, of this city, and of last season's Wilkesbarre Club, has been engaged by the Pittsfield (Mass.) Club to play short stop. Dunnigan, who formerly played second base for the Alaskas and who made his debut as a catcher with the Wilkesbarre Club last season, has been engaged by the Tecumseh Club, of London, Canada, champions of the International Association.

The Chelsea Club of South Brooklyn will play their opening game with the Alaskas of Staten Island at West Brighton on Saturday.

Games have been arranged by the Trinity College nine of Hartford, Conn., to be played on the Hartford Grounds as follows:—Harvard, April 20; Wesleyan, May 11; Amherst, May 18; Brown, May 29. The sophomore class has voted to give $200 to the Baseball Association for the use of the university nine.

The old baseball ground at Twenty-fifth and Jefferson streets, Philadelphia, which was the scene of so many close contests, was recently sold, and several blocks of houses are being erected on it. The question is now being agitated and is receiving tangible encouragement from leading business men of that city with regard to enclosing another ground for the Athletic professional club of that rectangular city.

CRICKET.

The cricket season of 1878 was opened yesterday by the Manhattan Club of this city on their grounds at Prospect Park. There was a very large attendance of the friends of the club, but many of the members themselves were absent. The president, Mr. James Neeves, and the captain, Mr. James Smith, were early on hand and frequently criticised the playing. Sides were chosen by Mr. R. Hooper and Mr. L. Love, and the playing was fair for a beginning. George Giles, Jr., made some excellent hits, one for a 4—which is considered a large score on this ground—eliciting special applause. His score of 18 was the highest of the day and was made by good play. Greig batted almost recklessly but bowled well. Hooper bowled finely, while Jackson took the honors by his steady bowling and subsequent batting. Love did fair work and made a good average as a bowler. Dellar fielded and batted well, and Makin was a good long stop. The following is the score:—

HOOPER'S SIDE.		LOVE'S SIDE.

CRICKET CONVENTION IN PHILADELPHIA.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 17, 1878.

The first general Cricket Convention ever held in the United States assembled this afternoon at the rooms of the Penn Club, in this city. It was organized by the appointment of A. A. Outerbridge, of the Philadelphia Cricket Club, as chairman, and J. R. Moore, of the Staten Island Club, as secretary. Certificates as delegates were presented by the following gentlemen:—

A. A. Outerbridge, of Philadelphia, Philadelphia; D. S. Newhall, of Young America, Philadelphia; Allan Harris, of University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia; E. S. Buckley, of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia; E. T. Comfort, of Dorian, Pennsylvania; R. H. Reilly, of Merion, Pennsylvania; J. Dewhurst, of Fall River, Massachusetts; B. F. Jenkins, of Manhattan, New York; J. H. Lee, of Baltimore, Maryland; A. Ellwood Jones, of St. Timothy, Pennsylvania; J. R. Moore, of Staten Island, New York; Frank Brewster, of Germantown, Philadelphia; John P. Green, of Belmont, Philadelphia. These were the delegates present at the opening of the Convention. Other gentlemen amateurs are also expected to arrive as delegates.

On motion of D. S Newhall it was resolved to appoint two committees, one on permanent organization and another on rules and suggestions. The Chair appointed as the Committee on Organization the following:—J. R. Moore, of the Staten Island; Allan Harris, of the University of Pennsylvania, and J. H Lee, of the Baltimore.

As the Committee on Rules the Chair designated the following:—D. S. Newhall, of the Young America; F. E. Brewster, of the Germantown; B. F. Jenkins, of the Manhattan; R. H. Reilley, of the Merion, and John P. Green, of the Belmont. The Chair was also added to the Committee on Organization.

The Chair stated that he had received a letter from the St. George, of New York, regretting that they would not send a delegate, but requesting to be informed of the actions of the Convention, with the objects of which they expressed sympathy. The Chair also stated that he had received a letter from the Peninsula Club, of Detroit, in relation to his acting as their representative; but, as this question of divided membership is one of those to come before the Convention he would let the matter go over for the present.

The Convention then took a recess until evening.

The committees, after considerable discussion, reported the following:—That the name of the association shall be "The Cricketers' Association of the United States," its object being the advancement of cricket interest. The association shall consist of the several cricket clubs represented by delegates at the first annual meeting, subject to approval of the executive committee of such other regularly organized clubs in the United States. The rules provide that the laws governing the Marlebone Club shall govern this organization until otherwise ordered. A member of a club shall not play with more than one club, except in case of an undergraduate belonging to a college club, who may have the privilege of playing with one other club.

The permanent officers elected were:—President, A. A. Outerbridge, Philadelphia Club; First Vice President, J. H. Lee, Baltimore Club; Second Vice President, to be elected by the executive committee; Secretary and Treasurer, John P. Greene, Belmont Club.

Executive Committee—Frank E. Brewster, Germantown Club; Daniel S. Newhall, Young America Club; J. R. Moore, Staten Island Club, with the president, or first vice president in his absence, and secretary and treasurer as ex-officio members.

RACKET.

The play at the Racket Club yesterday afternoon comprised two series of the second class handicap games. The first was between Mr. F. A. Otis and Mr. James P. Conover, best three in five, Conover receiving three aces. Otis won the second, fourth and fifth games, the play throughout being very creditable. Mr. E. C. Lamontagne (one hand) and Mr. J. E. J. Grainger were the competitors in the second series, Lamontagne winning the first, second and third games right off the reel. The full scores are appended:—

Otis	7	15	4	15	15
Conover	15	12	15	11	11
Lamontagne	15	15	15	—	—
Grainger	1	0	4	—	—

The championship series has been postponed until next week.

HANDBALL.

The announcement that the return series of games of handball, best three in five, between James McEvoy and William Courtney, for the Brooklyn championship, would occur on Wednesday filled Casey's court gallery to overflowing yesterday afternoon. The first, third and fourth games were won by Courtney, who was declared the champion. Following is the score:—

	1st.	2d.	3d.	4th.	Total.
William Courtney	21	14	21	21	77
James McEvoy	8	21	17	20	66

Immediately after Courtney was proclaimed victor John Dwyer challenged him to a trial of skill with him. Courtney accepted, and a three innings contest will occur this afternoon at Casey's court.

ANOTHER WALKING MATCH.

The challenge of John Ennis, of Chicago, to walk any man in America from one hundred to five hundred miles for $250 to $500 was accepted yesterday by W. E. Harding, of this city. Dr. L. C. Thomas and James McCloud, who recently backed Harding against Rice, of Rutland, for the championship, deposited $50 forfeit at the Clipper office and named the 27th inst. to fix upon the day of the contest and make the final deposit. Messrs. Thomas and McCloud also left a challenge offering to back Harding to walk any man in America fifty miles for a purse of $250 or $500 a side. Ennis, who is now walking at Buffalo, has also posted a deposit with the Clipper. It is expected that the contest will take place near this city about the middle of May.

MRS. HAYES.

HOW SHE IS TO BE ENTERTAINED BY THE LADIES OF THE QUAKER CITY.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17, 1878.

Mrs. Hayes, who is to accompany the President on his visit to this city next week, will be tendered by the ladies of Philadelphia a public reception in the Academy of the Fine Arts on Friday, the 26th inst. The committee of ladies having the matter in hand met last evening and agreed upon the following programme:—

The committee will attend upon Mrs. Hayes at the Continental Hotel, in the morning at ten o'clock, and as the first place of interest will visit the Girls' Normal School, Seventeenth and Spring Garden streets. The Woman's Medical College and the Educational Home in West Philadelphia, will be the next point of attention. These institutions will, without doubt, be to Mrs. Hayes of interest, for it is in the direction of female education and reform that she is said to have devoted much time during the past fifteen years. After partaking of lunch the party will proceed to the Academy of the Fine Arts, where the reception will take place. The hours fixed are between eight and eleven P. M., and from the number of invitations extended and the preparations made the incident will be noteworthy.
