Advertising Rates made known upon application.

The Leader goes into the majority of homes in Canton and surrounding territory making it a valuable paper for all advertisers.

Well, we haven't any more garden to cut down the price of the grocery bill.

We are not losing any sleep over the burdens the income tax will impose on us.

There are just as many hermits in business as there are in the woods. Get out and advertise.

In politics, principle is the principal thing. Parties and personalities should be secondary to principles.

There is not much use in teaching the geography class the different boundary lines in Europe at present.

Most of the Halloween stunts were not destructive as the boys and girls have found they can have fun without damaging property.

We benefit ourselves materially and we help the city in which we live by buying systematically of home stores and supporting every home industry.

The value of advertising appeals to the best business men of the times. The big steel trust is considering a proposition to spend $1,000,000 in advertising its products.

The Milwaukee is sending large electric locomotives to its Puget Sound line and experts say that within a comparatively short time all railroads will give up the use of steam power.

The state land department has had men out looking for people who were using state land without first securing a lease and as a consequence have collected $8,700 that otherwise would never have reached the state treasury.

Here's hoping that the next legislature will pass a primary election law that everybody can understand. One almost needs to be a lawyer and solver of Chinese puzzles to understand the present law.

The Sioux City Tribune paid G. W. Ryan $2000 as a settlement of his libel suit Saturday. He has a $10,000 judgment against the Watertown Public Opinion and an action pending against the Deadwood Telegram, also a case in the supreme court against the Sioux Falls Press.

The Vermilion Republican after publishing statements of ownership for a couple years has to tell the post-office men in Washington how much each partner owns of the plant and says: "The statement is published again, just so as to comply with the requirements, not that anyone gives a hinker's dam whether it's 50-50, or 51-49. If you are at all interested, you can find the statement somewhere else in this issue; we cannot tell you just where it is, but it's here somewhere." No one has yet explained to the paper owners why they should care to publish such things any more than the butcher, baker, candlestick maker, etc.

The Philatheas Enjoy A Party.

Friday evening the members of the class gathered at the home of Miss Imilda Larson. The rooms were very beautifully decorated by the usual Hallowe'en decoration. Of course, the ghosts, the weird witches, chimney sweeps, and several other characters were present. The hours were spent in enjoying such games and tricks as always prevail at such an occasion. A splendid lunch was served, which was enjoyed by all (?) as is usually the case.

The last and main feature of the evening's entertainment was a mock wedding. While the happy strains of the wedding march were being played by one of the young ladies present, the bride dressed in a beautiful gown of white mull, attended by a very dear friend, and the groom, dressed, not in the conventional black, but rather a beautiful gray, attended by an intimate friend marched into the parlor where the ceremony was performed by a visiting minister(?) The bride is one of Canton's popular young ladies, whose many friends will be glad to learn that she will not leave the city for at least a few days.

The groom, whom we are not so well acquainted with, Friday evening being our first meeting, seems to be a very happy and prosperous young person. The happy young couple will make their future home in our city.

We are sorry to say that there was a terrible accident just after the wedding ceremony. Someone by a careless act nearly broke the wedding ring (?) and also the bride's heart.

Cash of Calvary Cathedral of Sioux Falls in the presence of the immediate family. Mr. and Mrs. Pettigrew left in the afternoon on an extended wedding trip.

The bride is a native of Canton, well and favorably known. Mr. Pettigrew is a stranger here but is well spoken of. He runs a ranch a short distance from Flandreau and the young people will make their home in that town.

Augustana College.

The winter term at Augustana College will open immediately after Thanksgiving, Friday, Nov. 26th, and continue for four months.

If you are among those who have been working hard all summer and fall on the farm, getting your work off your hands so that you can spend the winter months at school, you are just the one we have been thinking about, and we have planned it so that you can begin just when your farm work is done, in the last part of November and get in an extra month of school before the holidays.

We have also planned shorter courses for you in such a way that you can begin from the beginning and carry the work forward as far as you can until "spring's work" calls you away from school again. Engage a room at once; they are going fast. 2114

We'll Wash Your Clothes Much Cleaner!

The principal reason why you should send your washing to us, instead of to a washerwoman or instead of doing it yourself at home, is that we'll wash your clothes much cleaner.

We wash your clothes in eight complete changes of water. These waters range in temperature from cold to boiling hot. We use plenty of good, pure soap, and we get the clothes white, sweet and clean.

Our service includes Rough Dry Wash and Washing and Ironing complete. Prices on each service are reasonable. Try us!

Baptist Church Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Feldman entertained the young people of the church and congregation at a Hallowe'en party at their home Saturday evening. The house was decorated with candles, witches and black cats. Ghosts received the guests at the front walk and conducted them into the house. Music, ghost stories and games furnished the entertainment of the evening. Luncheon was served in time to allow the guests to depart for their homes before Sunday morning, which they did with many expressions of appreciation of the good time shown them. Mr. and Mrs. Feldman proved themselves royal entertainers.

Mrs. Bruce Oliver will entertain the Ladies Aid Friday afternoon. The usual luncheon will be served in the evening. Men are especially invited to luncheon.

All the usual services will be held next Sunday with preaching by the pastor both morning and evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
